This is the document which led to the creation of the detailed survey commissioned by the Board of Health and completed in March 1852. More information can be found in the Background to the Plans. The Plans can be explored using the Interactive Plans or be seen on the Whole Plans page.