

---

From Altrincham Town's Surveyors Department, overlaid on the OS Map published in 1882 (surveyed 1876), photographed and enhanced by courtesy of Norman Spilsbury. Scale 1 to 2,500.

DOWNLOAD PDF

The links from the newly combined Altrincham and Bowdon Station, along with the shopping and business street of Stamford New Road, up the already established George Street and up the hill beyond to the Old Market Place, were reinforced with the widening of Cross Street, along with the creation of Grafton Street to the south (left on the map) and Kingsway to the north (right on the map).