

---

Kenneth O. Male, County Planning Officer, County Hall, Chester based upon the OS map of 1961. Scale 6 inches to one mile.

DOWNLOAD PDF

The newly created part of the North Cheshire Green Belt is indicated by green hatched lines, at a time when the whole area including Altrincham, came under Cheshire County Council. The Green Belt was intended to control urban sprawl and strip road development, by providing a protected ring of open land for agricultural, leisure and forestry use.