ALTRINCHAM, BOWDON,

AGDEN, ASHLEY, BOLLINGTON, BROADHEATH, DUNHAM MASSEY, DUNHAM WOODHOUSES, HALE, OLDFIELD, PEEL CAUSEWAY, RINGWAY, SINDERLAND, TIMPERLEY, AND NEIGHBOURHOODS.

ALTRINCHAM (frequently written Altringham) is a market town and township, and likewise gives name to the Altrincham division of the county of Chester, 30 miles north-east from Chester, 7 north-east from Knutsford, 9 west from Stockport, 8 south-south-west from Manchester, 11 east from Warrington, 18½ from Bolton, 30 from Liverpool and 193¼ from London, in the parish of Bowdon, union and hundred of Bucklow, rural deanery of Bowdon, archdeaconry of Macclesfield and diocese of Chester. The town, which occupies a dry situation, is well built and comprises several wide streets. Altrincham is an important railway centre, and has four separate but connected stations: Altrincham and Bowdon station, in Stamford New road, near the centre of the town, belonging to the Manchester, South Junction and Altrincham railway; Hale station, at the southern extremity of the town, on the Cheshire Lines railway; Broadheath station, north of the town, on the London and North Western line, and the West Timperley station, on the London, Stockport and Liverpool section of the Cheshire Lines railway, which is situated north of the town.

The Manchester Corporation Tramways extend to Altrincham and afford a 7½ minute service between the terminus in The Downs and Manchester.

The Bridgewater canal, now the property of the Manchester Ship Canal Co., intersects the township for three-quarters of a mile at Broadheath.

Altrincham was constituted a Local Government District, 18 February, 1851, under the provisions of the "Public Health Act, 1848" (11 & 12 Vict. c. 63), but by the "Local Government Act, 1894," it is now governed by an Urban District Council, consisting of 15 members.

Hamo de Massey, lord of Dunham Massey, by charter in the reign of Edward I. (circ. 1290), granted to the town the position of a free borough, instituting burgesses, and a guild merchant, and authorizing the burgesses to elect a praepositus or bailiff, now styled "mayor," and this charter is still preserved at the Free Library, enclosed in a circular oak case or box, shaped like an inverted cone. The mayor is still appointed annually at the Michaelmas court-leet of the lord of the barony by the steward from three persons whose names are then submitted to him by the leet jury, but he possesses no magisterial authority; there are no municipal insignia nor any seal. A full list of mayors from the year 1452 is on record. The arms of the town are "quarterly, gu. and or, in the first quarter a lion pass. arg."

The town is lighted with gas from works at Hale Moss, erected in 1847, and covering 4½ acres; the works are the property of a company, incorporated in 1872; the Altrincham Electric Supply Limited established works at Broadheath in 1894; since then there have been frequent extensions of plant to meet the growing demand, and in 1912 current was supplied through over 54 miles of mains to 1,354 residents, with a total of 80,426 lamps; and water is supplied to the district by the North Cheshire Water Company, and obtained by arrangement from the Manchester Corporation.

St. George's is an ecclesiastical parish, first formed out of the mother parish of Bowdon, August 28, 1860, and made a separate parish in 1868. The church, in Church street, built by subscription in 1799, and since enlarged, was rebuilt in 1897, at a cost of £5,500, and re-opened in November. The register dates from the year 1799. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £350, which is chiefly derived from pew rents, with residence, in the gift of the vicar of Bowdon for the time being, and held since 1901 by the Rev. Ernest Robert Tarbuck B.A. of the University of London, and surrogate. The vicarage house is near the church.

St. Alban's, Broadheath, is an ecclesiastical parish formed out of the parish of St. George, and constituted a separate parish in January, 1911. The church was erected in 1900 at a cost of about £4,000, but is at present (1912) incomplete: there are 320 sittings. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £200, in the gift of the Bishop of Chester, and held since 1912 by the Rev. Frederick Charles Bozman M.A. of Trinity College, Cambridge.

St. John the Evangelist's is an ecclesiastical parish, formed November 5, 1867, out of Bowdon St. Margaret, Dunham Massey and Timperley. The church, erected in 1866, at a cost of over £8,000, is a building of stone in the Gothic style, consisting of chancel, nave, aisles, transepts, south and west porches, and a south-west tower with octagonal spire. The church affords 950 sittings, of which half are free. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £366, with residence, in the gift of the Bishop of Chester, and held since 1866 by the Rev. Frederick Wainwright M.A. of Trinity College, Cambridge, and hon. canon of Chester.

St. Elizabeth's church, in Pownall street, erected in 1890, will seat 300 persons. The Rev. Leonard Thomas William Parr M.A. of Oxford University, has been curate in charge since 1905.

All Saints', Regent road, is a chapel of ease to St. Margaret's, Dunham Massey, from which it is served, and has sittings for 300 persons.

The Catholic church of St. Vincent de Paul, at the junction of Bentinck and Groby roads, was completed in 1906.

The Baptist chapel in Hale road, erected in 1875, has 450 sittings; a lecture hall, class rooms, organ chamber and vestry were added in 1908 at a cost of about £1,400.

The Wesleyan Methodist chapel, in Manchester road, Broadheath, erected in 1899, has 350 sittings.

The Town Hall, in Market street, erected in 1900-1 at a cost of £6,500, is a structure of brick with stone mullioned windows and dressings in the Jacobean style, from designs by Messrs. Hindle & Davenport, architects, and contains a lofty and spacious council chamber, lighted on three sides by windows displaying the arms of the ancient lords of Chester and of leading Cheshire families, and providing room both for the public and for reporters; connected with this apartment are retiring and waiting rooms and a balcony for use on public occasions; the remainder of the building comprises offices, and in the rear is an open courtyard, with a mortuary and fire station, the latter housing a new steam fire engine, three other engines, fire escapes, horse ambulance and other apparatus.

The Altrincham Jubilee Baths, Stamford New road, under the management of the Urban District Council, erected at a cost of £5,994, in commemoration of the 60th year of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, are of brick and include a swimming bath, 60 feet by 20 feet, and five slipper baths. In 1909 a swimming bath, 75 by 30 feet and from $3\frac{1}{2}$ to $6\frac{1}{2}$ feet deep, with 41 dressing rooms, and 8 private baths, was added, at a cost of £3,500.

The Market Hall, in Market street, erected in 1879, at a cost of £3,000, from the designs of Mr. M. A. Roscoe, architect, of Altrincham, is of brick in the Italian style, the whole inclosing a space of about 90 feet by 60.

The Linotype and Machinery Limited have works here, which, together with offices, &c., cover about 13 acres and find employment for over 1,000 people; houses have been built adjoining the works for the work people.

Agricultural and horticultural shows are held annually. The public slaughterhouses, built in 1870, on the outskirts of the town, have been taken over by the Urban District Council, and new and much improved premises were added in 1904.

The Sessions house and Police station in Dunham road is an edifice of brick and stone, erected in 1866 and enlarged in 1903. Attached are retiring rooms for the magistrates, two court rooms, two waiting rooms for witnesses, police office and lock-ups, with residence for the superintendent on one side, and a parade ground at the back; the county court is also held here.

Altrincham Conservative Club, in Market street, erected in 1882, at a cost of £2,000, is a structure of white brick in the Italian style, and contains billiard, reading, smoking, lecture and committee rooms, a bar and a manager's residence, and has a bowling green adjoining.

The Altrincham Conservative Working Men's Club, in Greenwood street, erected in 1887, is a brick building, with manager's quarters attached.

The Altrincham Free Library, Public Hall and Museum, in George street, formerly the Altrincham and Bowdon Literary Institution, was taken over by the Local Board (now the Urban District Council), on the adoption by the Board of the Public Libraries and Technical Education Acts, in 1889. The first building was erected in 1852, at a cost of £800, on a site given by George Harry, 7th Earl of Stamford and Warrington. The lecture hall, destroyed by fire in 1878, was rebuilt on an enlarged scale in the following year; and in 1893 the whole was generally enlarged at a cost of £6,000. The library, comprising lending and reference departments, now contains some 12,000 volumes, and has a reading room. The hall, which holds 700 persons, is well adapted for stage plays, bazaars, balls, concerts &c. The Museum was opened in 1898, and includes a collection of objects presented by the late Sir Cunliffe Brooks, besides a fine collection of birds, fossils, minerals and curios.

The township occupies a commanding eminence, affording fine views of the valley of the Bollin and the surrounding country for many miles; its delightful and healthy situation, and the facilities of railway communication which it enjoys, have made it a popular place of residence for the wealthier classes of Manchester. "The Local Government Act, 1858," was adopted 22 January, 1864, but under the "Local Government Act, 1894," the township is now governed by an Urban District Council, and supplied with water by the North Cheshire Water Co. The parish church of the Blessed Virgin Mary, first erected during the Saxon times, and thrice restored, according to a brass inscription in the interior, in the years 1100, 1320 and 1570, was rebuilt with enlargements, on the same site, in 1860, at a cost of £15,000, under the direction of Mr. W. H. Brakspear, architect, of Manchester, in the Transition style between the Decorated and Perpendicular periods, and is a cruciform edifice, consisting of chancel, with north and south chapels, transepts, clerestoried nave, north and south porches, and an embattled western tower, 91 feet in height, with pinnacles, and containing a clock and 6 bells; the base of the tower forms a western porch: both chapels were formerly used as the burying places for the Earls of Stamford and Warrington, but the present family vault is under the south or Dunham chapel, in which chapel there is a fine mural monument with inscribed tablet, sculptures and allegorical figures to Henry, 2nd Baron Delamere and 1st Earl of Warrington, tried for high treason, but honourably acquitted, 1676, ob. 2 January. 1693-4; and to Mary (Langham), his countess, ob. 23 March, 1690-91; here also is another large mural monument, with Ionic pillars supporting a pediment adorned with figures of cherubs, and at the back a shield of arms of 60 quarterings and two medallion portraits; on the monument is a long inscription to the Hon. Langham Booth, d. 12 May, 1724; and to the Hon. Henry Booth M.P. for Cheshire, 1661-80, d. 2 February, 1726-7: near the Carrington chapel is a fine monument, with recumbent effigies, to William Brereton esq. of Ashley, ob. 29 August, 1630, and Jane (Warburton), his wife, ob. 2 March, 1627; the figure of the former lies under an arch in the upper stage of the monument, and below, under a marble canopy, supported on pillars of the Corinthian order, is that of his wife; ten members of the Brereton family were buried here from 1570 to 1660, and the registers also record numerous baptisms: in the chancel proper is a brass to the Rev. John Kingsley M.A. formerly curate here, and some time vicar of Dunham Massey, d. November, 1869; and one to the Ven. William Pollock D.D. vicar of Bowdon and archdeacon of Chester, d. 11 October, 1873; and there are other memorials to Thomas Assheton Smith esq. d. 1769, and Harriet, his wife, d. 1778, and to Thomas, their son, d. 1774; and to Edward Jeremiah Lloyd esq. of Oldfield Hall, d. 3 July, 1850: the stained east window was presented by W. Neild esq. in memory of his wife, who died in 1859, and the west window, a memorial to Margaret Annie Clegg, was placed in 1854 by her parents; the large stained windows in the transepts were given by Lady Murray, of Oldfield Hall, and E. Joynson esq. of Bowdon, and there are five others, chiefly memorials: the font, presented in 1860 by Miss Joynson, consists of an octagonal basin of Painswick stone, richly carved, and supported on a shaft of Devonshire marble: the brass lectern was the gift in 1891 of F. G. Napier esq.: there are 1,164 sittings, in addition to those in the Dunham chapel: the churchyard was levelled and inclosed by a wall and railings in 1860, and further extended and inclosed in 1876. The register dates from the year 1627. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £673, with 10 acres of glebe and residence, erected in 1864, in the gift of the Bishop of Chester, and held since 1911 by the Ven. Alfred Maitland Wood M.A. of Trinity College, Cambridge, Archdeacon of Macclesfield and examining chaplain to the Bishop of Chester. The mission church of St. Luke, in Vicarage lane, erected in 1882, is served from the parish church. The Wesleyan chapel, Enville road, erected in 1880 at a cost, including Sunday schools and minister's house, of £30,000, is a building of stone, and will seat 700. There is also a small Wesleyan chapel in Priory street. The charities for distribution in bread, to be given away to the poor every Sunday, and in clothing, amount altogether to about £110 yearly; George, Earl of Warrington, left by will dated 22 July, 1754, a sum of £5,000, of the capital value (in 1902) of £5,610, invested in Consols, for apprenticing, educating or clothing poor children, or for clothing or affording other relief to aged persons; Walton's, Cooke's, and Bagshaw's charities produce £216 yearly for educational purposes and bedding. The trustees of the Earl of Stamford, who is a minor, are lords of the manor and chief landowners. The population of the township and urban district in 1911 was 3,044; the acreage, 828; rateable value, 1913, £30,528.

ASHLEY is a township and scattered village in an open country, on the river Bollin, with a station on the Altrincham and Chester section of the Cheshire Lines railway, 2 miles south from Altrincham and 10 from Manchester, and was formed March 4, 1881, into a consolidated chapelry out of Bowdon, Mobberley and Rostherne parishes: it is in the Altrincham division of the county, hundred and union of Bucklow, petty sessional division and county court district of Altrincham, rural deanery of Bowdon, archdeaconry of Macclesfield and diocese of Chester. The church of St. Elizabeth, erected in 1880, by William 1st Baron Egerton of Tatton, at a cost of nearly £4,000, entirely borne by him, is a structure of brick, in the Early English style, consisting of chancel, nave, transepts, south porch and a gable bellcote at the west end containing 5 bells. The registers date from 1880. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £285, with residence, in the gift of Lady Albemarle, and held since 1909 by the Rev. Samuel William Dunn B.A. of the Royal University, Ireland. Ashley Hall, anciently a seat of the Breretons, Barons Brereton of Brereton and Malpas, and afterwards of the Meredith family, is a gabled structure, faced with stucco, and was once a fine mansion, but a large portion was taken down about 1841, and the remainder converted into a farm dwelling; the floors of the principal rooms and the staircase are of oak, and these, as well as the old entrance hall, are still in good preservation: the Hall was long famous for a series of ten portraits of noblemen and gentlemen who, on the Jacobite rising in 1715, formed themselves into a club to discuss, at each other's houses, the expediency of joining the Pretender's standard, and being on one occasion assembled here the resolution was eventually come to by the casting vote of the chairman, Thomas Assheton esq. owner of the mansion, to support the reigning sovereign; this circumstance, from the powerful influence and family connections of the parties, must have greatly affected the cause of the Pretender in this district: the portraits in question were painted in 1720, to commemorate this eventful meeting, but about 1860 they were removed to Tatton by Lord Egerton. Ashley was held after the Conquest by the de Masseys, of Dunham Massey, and subsequently by the Duttons, one of whom (temp. Edward I.) took the name of de Ashley, and his descendants remained here till the end of the reign of Henry VIII., when Thomasin, daughter and heiress of George Ashley esq. married Richard, son of Sir William Brereton; Thomas Brereton esq. the last male heir, died in 1660, leaving his three sister-co-heiresses, one of whom married Ralph Assheton esq. whose descendant, Thomas Assheton Smith esq. sold the manor in 1841 to Wilbraham Egerton esq. ancestor of the present owner. Lord Egerton of Tatton D.L., J.P. is lord of the manor and principal landowner. Brereton's charity of £1 12s. is for clothing. The chief crops are wheat, barley, oats, potatoes and turnips; the soil is stiff clay and sand. The area is 2,173 acres; rateable value, 1913, £4,879; the population in 1891 was 412, in 1901 424, and in 1911 431.

BOLLINGTON, near Altrincham, is a parish, township and village on the river Bollin and near the Bridgewater canal, 1½ miles south from Dunham Massey station on the Warrington and Manchester section of the London and North Western railway and 3 south-west from Altrincham; the parish was formed Aug. 10, 1869, comprising the townships of Bollington, Agden and part of Millington, in the Altrincham division of the county, Bucklow union, petty sessional divison and county court district, rural deanery of Bowdon, archdeaconry of Macclesfield and diocese of Chester. The river Bollin bounds the township. The church of the Holy Trinity, consecrated 10 November, 1854, is a building of stone in the Early English style, consisting of chancel, nave, north porch and a western turret containing one bell: the church has an open timber framed roof and a stone pulpit and font, and affords 240 sittings, about 170 of which are free. The register dates from the year 1870. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £212, with residence, in the gift of the vicar of Rostherne, and held since 1912 by the Rev. Thomas Fletcher Royds B.D. of Worcester College, Oxford. The vicarage house was built in 1883 by a grant from the Ecclesiastical Commissioners and private subscription, upon an acre of land given by George Harry 7th Earl of Stamford and last Earl of Warrington. The trustees of the Earl of Stamford (a minor), who are lords of the manor, and Lord Egerton of Tatton are the sole landowners. The soil is in some parts clay; subsoil, sand, ASHTON-UPON-MERSEY is a village and parish, the latter comprising Sale and portion of the township of Ashton-on-Mersey, about one mile from Sale station on the Manchester South Junction and Altrincham railway, 6 from Manchester and 3 from Altrincham, in the Altrincham division of the county, Bucklow East hundred, union of Bucklow, Altrincham petty sessional division and county court district, rural deanery of Bowdon, archdeaconry of Macclesfield and diocese of Chester. Under the Local Government Act, 1894, an Urban District Council has been granted by the County Council to this township, which came into operation on June 24th, 1895, and consists of nine members.

The Mersey forms the northern boundary of the parish and separates it from Lancashire, and the river is here crossed by Crossford bridge, a substantial stone structure on the road between Manchester and Altrincham, another bridge carrying the railway. This parish, through the Mersey at Carrington, is now brought into connection with the Manchester Ship Canal. The place is supplied with water by the North Cheshire Water Company; gas is supplied by the Stretford Gas Co. and the electric light by the Altrincham Electric Supply Limited. The church of St. Martin is an edifice of stone, consisting of chancel with organ chamber, nave, baptistery, vestries and a tower containing one bell and a peal of 13 Harrington tubular bells: the organ was erected by subscription in April, 1857; in 1884-5 an organ chamber was added and the interior refurnished and refitted with open oak benches, the framing of the old pews being converted into panelling for the chancel walls: in 1887, vestries, a tower and a lych gate were erected, and in 1899 the tower and vestries were rebuilt, the whole at the sole cost of the late Sir William Cunliffe Brooks bart. from the designs of Mr. G. Truefitt, architect, of London: the church now affords 200 sittings. The register dates from the year 1630. The living is a rectory, net value £463, with 27 acres of glebe and residence, in the gift of Mrs. Atkinson, and held since 1912 by the Rev. Percy Holland Lester B.D. of Exeter College, Oxford. St. Mary Magdalene's parish was formed in 1894. The church, erected in 1872-4 at a cost of £9,000, on a site given by the late Sir W. Cunliffe Brooks bart. and consecrated 25 March, 1874, is of stone in the Early Decorated style, from designs by Messrs. Wilson and F. H. Oldham F.R.I.B.A. of Manchester, consisting of chancel with organ chamber, nave, transepts, south porch and a tower at the south-east angle with pinnacles and octagonal spire and containing one bell; the basement of the tower forms a vestry; an organ was erected in 1876; the east and west windows and several others are stained. A vestry was built at the west end in 1905: there are 700 sittings, part of which are free. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £373, with residence, in the gift of trustees, and held since 1910 by the Rev. Thomas Eaton McCormick M.A. of Trinity College, Dublin. All Saints' Mission church is in Mersey road. The Congregational chapel, in Cross street, erected in 1893 at a cost of £2,000, is a building in the Decorated Gothic style and has a stained window, designed by Sir Edward Burne-Jones bart. in memory of Mrs. Catherine Johnson. A new organ was provided in 1895 and a new Sunday school was built in 1902 at a further cost of £1,600. The Baptist chapel, in Ashton lane, is an edifice of stone in the Gothic style, built in 1875 at a cost of £3,000. The Meeting House of the Society of Friends, erected in 1856, is of red brick, and has an attached cemetery of about an acre of ground, inclosed by a wall. There are also Primitive Methodist and Wesleyan chapels. The Brooks Institute, in Carrington lane, erected in 1888 at the sole expense of the late Sir W. Cunliffe Brooks bart.is a brick and timber-framed structure, from designs by Mr. Truefitt, architect, of London, and consists of two spacious rooms,one for billiards and other games, the other being fitted as a reading room, there are also other rooms and a garden for the caretakers : the institute is managed by a committee. The Ashton-on-Mersey District Nurses' Home and Nursing Institute, St. Mary's road, was opened July 8, 1898, by Mrs. Coningsby Disraeli. The charities for education and distribution in clothing and bread amount to £12 17s. yearly, Moore's charity, included in the preceding, provides £1 11s. yearly for the Sunday schools of Ashton and Sale. Daine's charity originally consisted of £3,000, bequeathed by the late Miss Ellen Daine in 1879, but which has since under a scheme of the Charity Commissioners been applied to the purchase of about 7 acres of land, now divided into 64 allotments and let to poor persons of the township at 8s. 6d. each for the purpose of cultivation : the income arising therefrom is distributed in coals and blankets. About a mile and a half from the village is a model farm of 200 acres, erected by the late Samuel Brooks esq. upon his estate in 1857 : the farm buildings, arranged upon the most improved principle, occupy two acres and comprise a dwelling house, with a cottage on each side. The principal landowners are the trustees of the late Sir William Cunliffe Brooks bart. of Barlow Hall (d. 1900), and Mr. T. Lambert, of Claremont drive, Timperley. The soil is of a light sandy description, and market gardening is carried on here to a great extent. The area of the township of Ashton is 1,613 acres ; rateable value, 1913, £42,830 ; the population in 1911 was 7,234.

BAGULEY is a township, village and parish, formed in 1868 out of the parish of Bowdon, with a station on the Cheshire Lines railway, 2¼ miles south from Sale, 2¾ east-by-north from Altrincham, 13 east from Warrington, 6¼ north-west from Stockport and 8 south from Manchester, in the Altrincham division of the county, petty sessional division and county court district, Bucklow union and hundred, rural deanery of Bowdon, archdeaconry of Macclesfield and diocese of Chester. The district is supplied with water by the North Cheshire Water Co. The church of St. John the Divine, Brooklands road, consecrated in 1868, is a building of stone in the Gothic style, from designs by Mr. Alfred Waterhouse R.A. consisting of chancel, nave, transepts, organ chamber, vestry, porches attached to the north transept and north-west of the nave, and a turret near the western gable containing one bell: there are 500 sittings. The register dates from the year 1867. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £300 with residence, in the gift of the trustees of the late Sir W. C. Brooks bart. and of his brother, the late Thomas Brooks esq. and held since 1911 by the Rev. Cyril Bethell Jones B.A. of Owens College, Manchester. Connected with the church is a large parish room in Marsland road, Brooklands, and day and Sunday schools at Baguley. There are Baptist and Wesleyan chapels and a Congregational chapel, erected in 1868. The Baguley Sanatorium for Infectious Diseases (except small-pox), situate on the Baguley Lodge estate, was erected by the Withington Urban District Council at an estimated cost of £60,135, and opened on October 4th, 1902, by the Right Hon. Sir Frederick, 16th Earl of Derby K.G. but in 1904 it became the property of the Corporation of Manchester; there are 100 beds, and rooms for 25 nurses. Districts comprising the Bucklow Joint Hospital Board and the Urban District Council of Bowdon and Levenshulme have by arrangement retained certain beds in the hospital for their respective patients; private patients are also received when possible; Herbert S. Lister, supt.; Miss H. M. Turner, matron. Baguley Hall is an excellent example of the Domestic architecture of the time of Edward III.; the mansion was originally quadrangular; the one side still remaining includes the great hall, and is in good repair; it is now occupied as a farmhouse. The manor of Baguley, or, as it was originally spelt, "Baggiley," was held in 1319 by Sir W Baggiley, from whom it passed by marriage to the Leghs, of Booths, near Knutsford, and after having been in their possession for about three centuries, it became the property of the Viscounts Allen, a title which became extinct on the death, 21 September, 1845, of Joshua William, 6th viscount; the manor was subsequently transferred, by purchase, to the late Thomas William Tatton esq. (d. 1885), whose son, the present possessor, holds a court for the manor of Baguley every year. Thomas Egerton Tatton esq. J.P. of Wythenshawe Hall, is lord of the manor and chief landowner. The trustees of the Earl of Stamford, who is a minor, are lords of another manor in the township. Market gardening is carried on very extensively here, and is the chief occupation. The soil is sandy and stiff clay, and the subsoil red marl. The area is 1,769 acres; rateable value, 1913, £10,216. The population in 1911 was 970.

RAILWAY STATION.

CARRINGTON, on the south bank of the Mersey, which here separates the counties of Chester and Lancaster, is a township and a parish, formed September 15th, 1887, from the parish of Bowdon, one mile north from Partington station on the Cheshire Lines railway, 8½ miles from Manchester, 11 from Warrington, 5 north-west from Altrincham, in the Altrincham division of the county and county court district, Bucklow hundred and union, and in the rural deanery of Bowdon, archdeaconry of Macclesfield and diocese of Chester. The church of St. George, erected in 1759, is a plain edifice of brick, consisting of chancel, nave and a western turret containing one bell; a new organ was erected in 1889 at a cost of £180, raised by voluntary contributions: the church affords 250 sittings, of which 50 are free. The register dates from the year 1759. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £840, with 17 acres of glebe and residence, in the gift of the trustees of the Earl of Stamford, who is a minor, and held since 1882 by the Rev. Arthur George Digby Walsh B.A. of Balliol College, Oxford, who is non-resident. The Rev. Frank Warburton Fairhurst M.A. of Brasenose College, Oxford, has been curate in charge since 1911. There is a Primitive Methodist chapel here, erected in 1875. Here are extensive sewage farms and market gardens belonging to the Corporation of Manchester. The land (about 1,100 acres) includes Carrington Moss, and was purchased about 1885 from the 8th Earl of Stamford for £38,000, and nearly the whole has since been brought into a state of cultivation. A narrow gauge railway runs over the roads traversing the estate. Besides the purchase money, a like sum has been spent in carrying out the scheme, and from 120 to 150 workmen are constantly employed. The Earl of Stamford's charity of £6 yearly is for providing poor persons with blankets &c. during the winter months. The Guild of St. George, founded in 1838, is a benefit society for the relief of the sick poor of this parish. The ancient hall was taken down about 1849 and replaced by a farm residence, with suitable outbuildings, but a barn in the parish retains an old oak carved beam, bearing the arms of the Carrington family, still in good preservation. The trustees of the Earl of Stamford, who is a minor, are lords of the manor and chief landowners. On the banks of the Mersey sluices are placed at convenient distances, by means of which the low meadow lands can be irrigated at pleasure. The population in 1911 was 522; the acreage (comprising The Moss, of about 750 acres) is 2,294; rateable value, 1913, £5,647.

PARTINGTON is a village and township, formed into a parish March 5, 1885, from that of Bowdon, with a station on the Cheshire Lines railway, 4½ miles north-west from Altrincham, 9 from Warrington and 11 from Manchester, in the Altrincham division of the county, hundred and union of Bucklow, petty sessional division and county court district of Altrincham, rural deanery of Bowdon, archdeaconry of Macclesfield and diocese of Chester. The village, consisting principally of farmhouses, is separated from Lancashire by the river Mersey, which at this point is diverted into the Manchester Ship Canal, and an extensive coal basin, with water space of 5½ acres and half a mile of quayage, has been constructed here. From this basin the Wigan and Worsley coalfields are 12 miles and the Yorkshire coalfields 50 miles distant. A line of railway, for the convenience of the coal traffic, has been constructed here, running parallel with the present line, and joining it about 2 miles south-east; the line crosses the canal by an iron girder bridge, at a height of between 60 and 70 feet above the water line, and again joins the existing line at Glazebrook. The church of St. Mary the Virgin, erected in 1884 at a cost of £3,500, jointly defrayed by the late Rev. Canon George Heron M.A. of Moore Hall, Warrington (d. 1894), and the late Sir William Cunliffe Brooks bart. (d. 1900), is an edifice of Runcorn stone in the Gothic style, from designs by Mr. G. Truefitt, architect, of Bloomsbury square, London, and consists of chancel, nave, south porch and a south-east tower with shingled spire containing 3 bells: there are 250 sittings. The register dates from the year 1884. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £210, with residence, in the gift of the trustees of the Earl of Stamford, who is a minor, and held since 1904 by the Rev. James Batey M.A., L.Th. of Durham University. The Wesleyan chapel, founded in 1843 and rebuilt in 1861, is a small and plain edifice of brick. There is also a Congregational chapel. The trustees of the Earl of Stamford, who is a minor, are lords of the manor, and the trustees of the late Sir William Cunliffe Brooks bart. are the chief landowners. The soil for the most part is peat, and produces wheat, barley, oats, hay and potatoes. The area is 754 acres; rateable value, 1913, £4,606. The population in 1911 was 758.
