THIS Directory includes a Topographical description of the City of Manchester, with full information as to its various buildings and institutions and the usual divisions of STREETS, ALPHABETICAL, TRADES AND OFFICIAL.

The Suburban portion is grouped in districts with a Street Register for local reference, but one general alphabetical list of names only is given for this section. It can thus at once be ascertained whether the name of any person is to be found in the book.

The whole volume has been revised and corrected up to as late a date as possible, and every effort has been made to render the information both accurate and complete.

A special new map of the environs has been given.

ALTRINCHAM, BOWDON,

AGDEN, ASHLEY, BOLLINGTON, BROADHEATH, DUNHAM MASSEY, DUNHAM WOODHOUSES, HALE, OLDFIELD, PEEL CAUSEWAY, RINGWAY, SINDERLAND, TIMPERLEY, AND NEIGHBOURHOODS.

ALTRINCHAM (frequently written Altringham) is a market town and township, and likewise gives name to the Altrincham division of the county of Chester, 30 miles north-east from Chester, 7 north-east from Knutsford, 9 west from Stockport, 8 south-south-west from Manchester, 11 east from Warrington, 18½ from Bolton, 30 from Liverpool and 193¼ from London, in the parish of Bowdon, union and hundred of Bucklow, rural deanery of Bowdon, arch-deaconry of Macclesfield and diocese of Chester. The town, which occupies a dry situation, is well built and comprises several wide streets. Altrincham is an important railway centre, and has four separate but connected stations: Altrincham and Bowdon station, in Stamford New road, near the centre of the town, belonging to the Manchester, South Junction and Altrincham railway; Hale station, at the southern extremity of the town, on the Cheshire Lines railway; Broadheath station, north of the town, on the London and North Western line, and the West Timperley station, on the London, Stockport and Liverpool section of the Cheshire Lines railway, which is situated north of the town.

The Manchester Corporation Tramways extend to Altrincham and afford a 7½ minute service between the terminus in The Downs and Manchester.

The Bridgewater canal, now the property of the Manchester Ship Canal Co. intersects the township for three-quarters of a mile at Broadheath.

Altrincham was constituted a Local Government District, 18 February, 1851, under the provisions of the "Public Health Act, 1848" (11 & 12 Vict. c. 63), but by the "Local Government Act, 1894," it is now governed by an Urban District Council, consisting of 15 members.

Hamo de Massey, lord of Dunham Massey, by charter in the reign of Edward I. (circa 1290), granted to the town the position of a free borough, instituting burgesses, and a guild merchant, and authorizing the burgesses to elect a præpositus or bailiff, now styled "mayor," and this charter is still preserved at the Free Library, enclosed in a circular oak case or box, shaped like an inverted cone. The mayor is still appointed annually at the Michaelmas courtleet of the lord of the barony by the steward from three persons whose names are then submitted to him by the leet jury, but he possesses no magisterial authority; there are no municipal insignia nor any seal. A full list of mayors from the year 1452 is on record. The arms of the town are "quarterly, gu. and or, in the first quarter a lion pass. arg."

The town is lighted with gas from works at Hale Moss, erected in 1847 and covering 4½ acres; the works are the property of a company, incorporated in 1872; the Altrincham Electric Supply Limited, established works at Broadheath in 1894; since then there have been frequent extensions of plant to meet the growing demand, and in 1904 current was supplied through over 40 miles of mains to close upon 800 residents, with a total of 42,000 lamps; and water is supplied to the district by the North Cheshire Water Company, and obtained by arrangement from the Manchester Corporation.

St. George's is an ecclesiastical parish, first formed out of the mother parish of Bowdon, August 28, 1860, and made a separate parish in 1868. The church, in Church street, built by subscription in 1799, and since enlarged, was rebuilt in 1897, at a cost of £5,300, and re-opened in November. The register dates from the year 1799. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £350, which is chiefly derived from pew rents, with residence, in the gift of the vicar of Bowdon for the time being, and held since 1902 by the Rev. Ernest Robert Tarbuck B.A. of the University of London, and surrogate. The vicarage house is near the church.

The mission church of St. Alban at Broadheath is in connection with St. George's.

The church, erected in 1866, at a cost of over £8,000, is a building of stone in the Gothic style, consisting of chancel, nave, aisles, transepts, south and west porches, and a south-west tower with octagonal spire: the church affords 950 sittings, of which half are free. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £366, with residence, in the gift of the Bishop of Chester, and held since 1866 by the Rev. Frederick Wainwright M.A. of Trinity College, Cambridge.

The Unitarian chapel, in Dunham road, erected in 1876, will seat 350 persons.

The Wesleyan chapel, in Woodlands road, built in 1866, at a cost of £7,000, is of stone, in the Romanesque style, and will seat 750 persons.

The Welsh Calvinistic Methodist chapel, in Willow Tree road, was built in 1903 at a cost of £924, and will seat 180.

Trinity Mission hall, Police street, erected in 1891, is in connection with the Presbyterian church, Delamere road, Dunham Massey.

The Christian meeting room is in Ashfield road.

Gospel Mission Room, Old Post Office, Market street.

The Town Hall, in Market street, erected in 1900-1 at a cost of £6,500, is a structure of brick with stone mullioned windows and dressings, in the Jacobean style, from designs by Messrs. Hindle and Davenport, architects, and contains a lofty and spacious Council chamber, lighted on three sides by windows displaying the arms of the ancient lords of Chester and of leading Cheshire families, and providing room both for the public and for reporters; connected with this apartment are retiring and waiting rooms, and a balcony for use on public occasions; the remainder of the building comprises offices, and in the rear is an open courtyard, with a mortuary and fire station, the latter housing a new steam fire engine, three other engines, fire escapes, horse ambulance and other apparatus.

The Altrincham Jubilee Baths, Stamford New road, under the management of the Urban District Council, erected in commemoration of the 60th year of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, are of brick, and include a swimming bath 60 feet by 20 feet and five slipper baths.

The Market Hall, in Market street, erected in 1879, at a cost of £3,000, from the designs of Mr. M. A. Roscoe, architect, of Altrincham, is of brick in the Italian style, the whole inclosing a space of about 90 feet by 60.

The market for butter, eggs, poultry, rabbits, fruit and drapery is held on Tuesdays, weekly.

Cabinet making is carried on. At Broadheath are engineering and emery works, and there are coal wharfs on the Bridgewater Canal Undertaking, besides iron foundries, timber yards and saw mills.

The Linotype and Machinery Lim. have works here, which, together with offices &c. cover about 13 acres and find employment for over 1,000 people; houses have been built adjoining the works for the work people.

Agricultural and horticultural shows are held annually. The public slaughter-houses, built in 1870, on the outskirts of the town, have been taken over by the Urban District Council, and new and much improved premises were added in 1904.

The Sessions House and Police Station, in Dunham road, is an edifice of brick and stone erected in 1866 and enlarged in 1903. Attached are retiring rooms for the magistrates, two court rooms, two waiting rooms for witnesses, police office and lock-ups, with residence for the superintendent on one side, and a parade ground at the back; the county court is also held here.

The Altrincham Conservative Working Men's Club, in Greenwood street, erected in 1887, is a spacious brick building, with manager's quarters attached.

The Altrincham Free Library, Public Hall and Museum, in George street, formerly the Altrincham and Bowdon Literary Institution, was taken over by the Local Board (now the Urban District Council), on the adoption by the Board of the Public Libraries and Technical Education Acts, in 1889. The first building was erected in 1852, at a cost of £800, on a site given by George Harry, 7th Earl of Stamford and Warrington. The lecture hall, destroyed by fire in 1878, was rebuilt on an enlarged scale in the following year; and in 1893 the whole was generally enlarged at a cost of £6,000. The Library, comprising lending and reference departments, now contains some 10,000 volumes, and has a reading room well supplied with daily, weekly and monthly papers and magazines &c. The hall, which holds 700 persons, is well adapted for stage plays, bazaars, balls, concerts &c. The Museum, opened in 1898, includes a collection of objects presented by the late Sir Cunliffe Brooks and a fine collection of birds, fossils, minerals and curios, and is managed by a committee.

The County Technical Institute comprises separate rooms for the teaching of chemistry, art, carpentry, cookery, modelling, wood carving, metal work and plumbing, together with several class rooms. A chemical laboratory was added in 1905.

Lloyd's Fever Hospital, in Lloyd street, was erected in 1853 at a cost of £600, on a site given by the late Earl of Stamford and Warrington, as a memorial to Edward Jeremiah Lloyd esq. of Oldfield Hall (d. 1850), and endowed by Mrs. Lloyd with a legacy of £1,000. The hospital, which in 1877 was transferred to the Local Board of Health, for patients from Altrincham and Bowdon, contains 4 wards, 2 bath rooms and sitting room, matron's and servants' apartments and the usual offices.

BOWDON is an extensive parish and township, 9 miles south from Manchester, 7 from Knutsford, 12 from Northwich and 1 south-west from Altrincham, with a station locally in Stamford road, Altrincham, on the Manchester, South Junction and Altrincham railway, and connected also with the neighbouring stations on the London and North Western and Cheshire Lines railways, in the Altrincham division of the county, hundred and union of Bucklow, Altrincham county court district, rural deanery of Bowdon, archdeaconry of Macclesfield and diocese of Chester. The township occupies a commanding eminence, affording fine views of the valley of the Bollin and the surrounding country for many miles; its delightful and healthy situation, and the facilities of railway communication which it enjoys, have made it a popular place of residence for the wealthier classes of Manchester. "The Local Government Act, 1858," was adopted 22 January, 1864, but under the "Local Government Act, 1894," the township is now governed by an Urban District Council, and supplied with water by the North Cheshire Water Co. The parish church of the Blessed Virgin Mary, first erected during the Saxon times, and thrice restored, according to a brass inscription in the interior, in the years 1100, 1320 and 1570, was rebuilt with enlargements, on the same site, in 1860, at a cost of £15,000, under the direction of Mr. W. H. Brakspear, architect, of Manchester, in the Transition style between the Decorated and Perpendicular periods, and is a cruciform edifice, consisting of chancel, with north and south chapels, transepts, clerestoried nave, north and south porches, and an embattled western tower, 91 feet in height, with pinnacles, and containing a clock and 6 bells; the base of the tower forms a western porch: both chapels were formerly used as the burying places for the Earls of Stamford and Warrington, but the present family vault is under the south or Dunham chapel, in which chapel there is a fine mural monument with inscribed tablet, sculptures and allegorical figures to Henry, 2nd Baron Delamere and 1st Earl of Warrington, tried for high treason, but honourably acquitted, 1676, ob. 2 January, 1693-4; and to Mary (Langham), his countess, ob. 23 March, 1690-91; here also is another large mural monument, with Ionic pillars supporting a pediment adorned with figures of cherubs, and at the back a shield of arms of 60 quarterings and two medallion portraits; on the monument is a long inscription to the Hon. Langham Booth, d. 12 May, 1724; and to the Hon. Henry Booth M.P. for Cheshire, 1661-80, d. 2 February, 1726-7: near the Carrington chapel is a fine monument with recumbent effigies, to William Brereton esq. of Ashley, ob. 29 August, 1630, and Jane (Warburton), his wife, ob. 2 March, 1627; the figure of the former lies under an arch in the upper stage of the monument, and below, under a marble canopy, supported on pillars of the Corinthian order, is that of his wife; ten members of the Brereton family were buried here from 1570 to 1660, and the registers also record numerous baptisms: in the chancel proper is a brass to the Rev. John Kingsley M.A. formerly curate here, and some time vicar of Dunham Massey, d. November, 1869; and one to the Ven. William Pollock D.D. vicar of Bowdon and Archdeacon of Chester, d. 11 October, 1873; and there are other memorials to Thomas Assheton Smith esq. d. 1769, and Harriet, his wife, d. 1778, and to Thomas, their son, d. 1774; and to Edward Jeremiah

Lloyd esq. of Oldfield Hall, d. 3 July, 1850: the stained east window was presented by W. Neild esq. in memory of his wife, who died in 1859, and the west window, a memorial to Margaret Annie Clegg, was placed in 1854 by her parents; the large stained windows in the transepts were given by Lady Murray, of Oldfield Hall, and E. Joynson esq. of Bowdon, and there are five others, chiefly memorials: the font, presented in 1860 by Miss Joynson, consists of an octagonal basin of Painswick stone, richly carved, and supported on a shaft of Devonshire marble: the brass lectern was the gift in 1891 of F. G. Napier esq.: there are 1,164 sittings, in addition to those in the Dunham chapel: the churchyard was levelled and inclosed by a wall and railings in 1860, and further extended and inclosed in 1876. The register dates from the year 1627. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £673, with 10 acres of glebe and residence, erected in 1864, in the gift of the Bishop of Chester, and held since 1873 by the Rev. Arthur Gore D.D. of Trinity College, Dublin, canon residentiary of Chester, examining chaplain to the Bishop of Chester, and surrogate. The mission church, in Vicarage lane, erected in 1882, is served from the parish church. The Wesleyan chapel, Enville road, erected in 1880 at a cost, including Sunday schools and minister's house, of £30,000, is a building of stone, and will seat 700. There is also a small Wesleyan chapel in Priory street. The charities for distribution in bread, to be given away to the poor every Sunday, and in clothing, amount altogether to about £110 yearly: George, Earl of Warrington, left by will dated 22 July, 1754, a sum of £5,000, of the capital value (in 1902) of £5,610, invested in Consols, for apprenticing, educating or clothing poor children, or for clothing or affording other relief to aged persons; Walton's, Cooke's, and Bagshaw's charities produce £216 yearly for educational purposes and bedding. The Earl of Stamford is lord of the manor and chief landowner. The population of the township and urban district in 1901 was 2,788; the acreage, 713; rateable value, 1908, £29,551.

ASHLEY is a township and scattered village in an open country, on the river Bollin, with a station on the Altrincham and Chester section of the Cheshire Lines railway, 2 miles south from Altrincham and 10 from Manchester, and was formed March 4, 1881, into a consolidated chapelry out of Bowdon, Mobberley and Rostherne parishes: it is in the Altrincham division of the county, hundred and union of Bucklow, petty sessional division and county court district of Altrincham, rural deanery of Bowdon, archdeaconry of Macclesfield and diocese of Chester. The church of St. Elizabeth, erected in 1880, by the late Lord Egerton of Tatton, at a cost of nearly £4,000, entirely borne by him, is a structure of brick, in the Early English style, consisting of chancel, nave, transepts, south porch and a gable bellcote at the west end containing 5 bells. The registers date from 1830. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £285, with residence, in the gift of Earl Egerton of Tatton, and held since 1880 by the Rev. Geoffrey Birtwell B.A. of Queens' College, Cambridge. Ashley Hall, anciently a seat of the Breretons, Barons Brereton of Brereton and Malpas, and afterwards of the Meredith family, is a gabled structure, faced with stucco, and was once a fine mansion, but a large portion was taken down about 1841 and the remainder, converted into a farm dwelling, is now occupied by Mr. Henry Lowe: the floors of the principal rooms and the staircase are of oak, and these, as well as the old entrance hall, are still in good preservation: the Hall was long famous for a series of ten portraits of noblemen and gentlemen who, on the Jacobite rising in 1715, formed themselves into a club to discuss, at each other's houses, the expediency of joining the Pretender's standard, and being on one occasion assembled here the resolution was eventually come to by the casting vote of the chairman, Thomas Assheton esq. owner of the mansion, to support the reigning sovereign; this circumstance, from the powerful influence and family connections of the parties, must have greatly affected the cause of the Pretender in this district: the portraits in question were painted in 1720 to commemorate this eventful meeting, but about 1860 they were removed to Tatton by Lord Egerton. Ashley was held after the Conquest by the de Masseys, of Dunham Massey, and subsequently by the Duttons, one of whom (temp. Edward I.) took the name of de Ashley, and his descendants remained here till the end of the reign of Henry VIII. when Thomasin, daughter and heiress of George Ashley esq. married Richard, son of Sir William Brereton; Thomas Brereton esq. the last male heir, died in 1660, leaving his three sisters co-heiresses, one of whom married Ralph Assheton esq. whose descendant, Thomas Assheton Smith esq. sold the manor in 1841 to Wilbraham Egerton esq. ancestor of the present owner. Earl Egerton of Tatton D.L., J.P. is lord of the manor and principal landowner. Brereton's charity of £1 12s. is for clothing. The chief crops are wheat, barley, oats, potatoes and turnips. The soil is stiff clay and sand. The area is 2,173 acres; rateable value, 1908, £4,836; the population in 1891 was 412, and in 1901 424.

THORNS GREEN and HOUGH GREEN are places here.
