PREFACE.

THE Proprietors trust that the present—the Sixth—Edition of Kelly's Directory of the County of CHESHIRE may be found equal in accuracy to the previous ones.

It comprises a general account of the County, with the Hundreds and Poor Law Unions, a sketch of its geological features, and a description of the Cathedral of Chester, and further all places in the County, alphabetically arranged, with lists of the Inhabitants, both Private Residents and those engaged in Commerce and Trade. Under each Parish the Division of the County (as formed under the provisions of the "Redistribution of Seats Act, 1885), the Hundred, Union, and County Court District, the Diocese, Arch-deaconry and Rural Deanery are given, as also the College and University of every Beneficed Clergyman, as far as they can be ascertained, and the names of the Parish Clerks ; and lists of the Farm Bailiffs of Gentlemen farming their own land have been added.

The County Council (formed under the "Local Government Act, 1888") is included, with the names and addresses of the members, and the changes made under the provisions of the "Local Government Act, 1894."

The Manchester Ship Canal, of which a general description is given, is duly mentioned at the respective places through which it passes.

The Proprietors have again to return their thanks to those Clergymen, Magistrates' Clerks, Registrars, and other Gentlemen who may have assisted their Agents when collecting the information for the present Edition.

* * The Letters S.O. and R.S.O. at the end of addresses in various parts of the book are abbreviations adopted by H. M. Post Office to represent Sub-Office and Railway Sub-Office ; and if these initials, with the name of the County, are added to the addresses of letters in lieu of the usual name of Post Town, the delivery of such letters will be accelerated.

ALTRINCHAM.

ALTRINCHAM (or, as it is frequently written, Altring-ham) is a market town and township, 30 miles northeast from Chester, 7 north-east from Knutsford, 9 west from Stockport, 8 south-south-west from Manchester, 11 east from Warrington, 18½ from Bolton, 30 from Liverpool and 193½ from London, and is within the Altrincham division of the county, parish of Bowdon, rural deanery of Bowdon, archdeaconry of Macclesfield and diocese of Chester: it is also in the hundred and union of Bucklow, the latter having been formed in 1895 in place of the old Altrincham union. The town is an important railway centre, and has four separate but connected stations:— Altrincham and Bowdon station, in Stamford road, near the centre of the town, belonging to the Manchester, South Junction and Altrincham railway; Hale station, at the southern extremity of the town, on the Cheshire Lines railway; Broadheath station, to the north, on the London and North Western line; and West Timperley station, north of the town, on the Cheshire Lines railway.

The Bridgewater canal, now the property of the Manchester Ship Canal Co. intersects the township for three-quarters of a mile at Broadheath.

Altrincham was constituted a Local Government District 18 Feb. 1851, under the provisions of the "Public Health Act, 1848" (11 & 12 Vict. c. 63) and was under the control of a Local Board, until, under the provisions of the "Local Government Act, 1894" (56 and 57 Vict.
 c. 73), the present Urban District Council was established.

Hamon de Massey, lord of Dunham Massey, by charter in the reign of Edward I. (circ. 1290), granted to the town the position of a free borough, instituting burgesses, and a gild merchant, and authorised the burgesses to elect a praepositus or bailiff, now styled "mayor," and this charter "is still preserved, enclosed in a circular oak case or box, shaped like an inverted cone, two or three inches in diameter." The mayor is still appointed annually at the Michaelmas court leet of the lord of the barony, by the steward, but he possesses no magisterial authority, and his duties appear to have been confined to the opening of the fairs, which are now obsolete; there is no corporate seal, chain or badge of any kind. The arms of the town are "quarterly, gu. and or. in the first quarter a lion pass. arg."

The town, which occupies a very healthy situation, comprises several wide streets, and is lighted with gas from works at Hale Moss, about half-a-mile east, erected about 1850, and covering $4\frac{1}{2}$ acres; the works are the property of a company, incorporated in 1872, and the water supply is from Manchester, with two reservoirs at Bowdon, of the North Cheshire Water Company.

St. George's is an ecclesiastical parish, first formed out of the mother parish of Bowdon, Aug. 28, 1860, and made a separate parish in 1868.

The church, in Church street, built by subscription in 1799, and twice enlarged, was rebuilt in 1896 from designs by Messrs. Paley and Austin, architects, at a cost of £5,500, and reopened Nov. 17, 1897: it consists of chancel, nave, aisles and a western tower containing one bell: the stained east window, a memorial to Samuel and Ann Hardy, was presented by their daughter, Sarah Holland, in 1861: the west window is a memorial to William P. Grimble Groves, and was placed in 1897: the fine alabaster pulpit is a memorial to John Newton esq.: the alabaster wainscot of the chancel was given in 1898 by Charles Newton and Henry Fairbrother esqrs.: the alabaster font is a memorial to the Rev. George London, vicar 1860-1894: the stained glass of the seven windows in the north aisle was all removed from the old church and replaced in the original tracery: the brass lectern was given by Henry Fairbrother esq.: the church will seat 700 persons. The register dates from the year 1799. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £302, chiefly derived from pew rents, with residence, in the gift of the vicar of Bowdon for the time being, and held since 1893 by the Rev. William Maurice Bonnor Lutener M.A. of Keble College, Oxford, and surrogate. The vicarage house is near the church.

St. John the Evangelist's is an ecclesiastical parish, formed Nov. 5, 1867, out of Bowdon St. Margaret, Dunham Massey and Timperley. The church, erected in 1866, at a cost of over £8,000, is a building of stone in the Gothic style, consisting of chancel, nave, aisles, transepts, south and west porches, and a south-west tower with octagonal spire. The church affords 950 sittings, of which half are free. The register dates from the year 1866. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £366, with residence, in the gift of the Bishop of Chester, and held since 1866 by the Rev. Frederick Wainwright M.A. of Trinity College, Cambridge.

St. Elizabeth's mission church, in Islington street, erected in 1890, and served from St. John's church, will seat 300 persons.

All Saints', Regent road, is a chapel-of-ease to St. Margarets, Dunham Massey, from which it is served, and has sittings for 300 persons.

The Catholic church of St. Vincent de Paul, in New street, erected in 1858, is a small building in the Gothic style, and will seat 350 people.

The Baptist chapel in Hale road, erected in 1875, has 450 sittings.

The Congregational chapel is in Navigation road, and there is a Congregational mission room in Oxford road.

The Methodist New Connexion chapel in George street was erected in 1820, and there is a Primitive Methodist chapel in Oxford road; the Unitarian chapel in Dunham road, erected in 1876, will seat 350 persons.

The Wesleyan Methodist chapel in Woodlands road, built in 1866 at a cost of £7,000, is of stone, in the Romanesque style, and will seat 640 persons, and the Wesleyan Methodist chapel, Broadheath, erected in 1899, at a cost of £1,700, has sittings for 350 persons.

Trinity mission hall, Police street, erected in 1891, is in connection with the Presbyterian church, Delamere road, Dunham Massey.

The Salvation Army hall in Shaws lane will hold 500 persons.

The Gospel hall is at 3 George street, and the Christians' meeting room in Lloyd street.

Mr. George Wood's Bible Class for Working Men meets in Pownall street.

The Altrincham Urban Council Cemetery, Hale road, opened 12th December, 1894, at a cost of about £9,000, covers an area of 10 acres, of which 5 only are at present enclosed. It contains a small chapel, which is used for all denominations and is governed by the Altrincham Urban District Council.

The new Town Hall, in Market street, erected in 1901, from the designs of Messrs. Hindle and Davenport, of Manchester, is a structure of red brick and red sandstone dressings in the Jacobean style; it contains a large hall with mosaic floor; the council chamber, 35 ft. by 26 ft. with a panelled ceiling and stained windows, displaying the arms of the Barons of Chester and the principal Cheshire families; the carved oak chairs were specially designed and made by Mr. Joseph Phillips, of Altrincham: here also are the offices of the clerk, surveyor, rate collector and overseers; the staircase windows bear the Royal arms and those of Altrincham, Chester and Manchester. Adjoining is the Fire Station, where is kept a steam fire engine belonging to the Urban District Council; the force comprises 12 men and a superintendent; there is a comfortably fitted-up room for the firemen, and also a mortuary.

The old Town Hall, near the Market place, erected by the Earl of Stamford and Warrington in 1849, is an edifice of red brick with stone dressings, relieved in front by a bell turret with clock; the lower portion is now used as a grain store, above which, and extending along the whole length of the building, is an assembly room 66 feet by 30, now attached to the Unicorn hotel and used for public and masonic meetings, balls and lectures; it will seat about 300 persons.

The Market hall, in Market street, erected in 1879, at a cost of £5,000, from the designs of Mr. M. A. Roscoe, architect, of Altrincham, is of brick in the Italian style, the whole enclosing a space of about 90 feet by 60.

The market for butter and eggs is held on Tuesdays, weekly.

Cabinet making is carried on. At Broadheath are coal wharfs on the Bridgewater Canal undertaking; there are also iron foundries, timber yards, saw mills, nurseries and photographic apparatus manufactories. The works of the Linotype Company Limited here cover about 14 acres of ground, and employ some 1,500 people, most of whom reside on the adjoining Linotype Estate, on which the company have erected workmen's houses.

An agricultural and horticultural show is held annually. The public slaughterhouses, built in 1870, are on the outskirts of the town.

The Sessions house and Police station in Dunham road is an edifice of brick and stone erected in 1866. Attached are retiring rooms for the magistrates, police office and lock-ups, with residence for the superintendent on one side, and a parade ground at the back; on the premises is a fire bell; the County Court is also held here.

Altrincham Conservative club, in Market street, erected in 1882 at a cost of £2,000, is a structure of white brick in the Italian style and contains billiard, reading, smoking, lecture and committee rooms, a bar, and a manager's residence, and has a spacious and well-kept bowling green adjoining. It is the Conservative centre for the Altrincham division of the county.

The Sessions house and Police station in Dunham road were opened in August, 1901. They cost about £6,000, partly defrayed by the Urban District Council, by whom the baths are controlled; the swimming bath is 60 feet long by 24 feet broad, and there are also hot and cold water baths.

The Altrincham Free Library and Technical school, formerly the Altrincham & Bowdon Literary Institution, first established in 1847, occupies premises in George street, erected in 1852 at a cost of £800 on a site given by the 7th Earl of Stamford and Warrington and enlarged in 1892 at a cost of £6,000; it comprises library of 8,000 volumes, reading room supplied with daily, weekly and monthly papers and periodicals and a spacious Lecture Hall, 71 feet by 36 feet, which is licensed for dramatic performances. During the winter season, Science, Art and Commercial classes are held under the Technical Instruction Acts 1889 and 1891, and in connection with the Science and Art Department of the Committee of Council on Education, the Union of Lancashire and Cheshire Institutions and the City and Guilds of London Institutes. An exhibition of drawings is held annually.

The Institution and Library are managed by the Altrincham Urban District Council, with the assistance of 12 honorary members.

St. Margaret's Institute, in Market street, in connection with St. Margaret's church, Dunham Massey, was erected in 1896 at a cost of £2,500, from designs by Mr. Gouldsmith, architect, and contains a large room for concerts and dramatic performances, seating about 350 people. There are also reading and billiard rooms and a good gymnasium. Weaving and wood-carving classes are held here. The Institute is open to persons of both sexes, and there were in 1901 over 600 members.

The Broadheath Institute, in the Manchester road, Broadheath, contains reading, library, lecture and billiard rooms.

The Altrincham Conservative Working Men's Club in Greenwood street, erected in 1887, is a spacious brick building, with manager's quarters attached.

St. John's club rooms, Islington street, in connection with St. John's church, are open every evening.

The Oddfellows Hall, Market street, originally belonging to the Altrincham Permanent Benefit Building Society, was purchased in 1901 by the Hospital authorities and converted into a nurses' home.

Charities.—The Altrincham Workhouse Trust produces £230 yearly. The Mayor's Land Charity produces about £250 a year for public uses, out of which a sum of £45 is annually given to the mayor. The Cooper's trust, of about £20, is for distribution in kind and money.

Lloyd's Fever Hospital, in Lloyd street, was erected in 1853 at a cost of £600, on a site given by the late Earl of Stamford and Warrington, as a memorial to Edward Jeremiah Lloyd, esq. of Oldfield Hall (d. 1850), and endowed by Mrs. Lloyd with a legacy of £1,000. The hospital, which in 1877 was transferred to the old Local Board of Health, is now controlled by the Urban District Council; it contains 4 wards, 2 bath rooms and sitting room, matron's and servants' apartments and the usual offices. There are 36 beds, of which 19 were occupied in 1901. The average number of patients is about 60 yearly.

The General Hospital for accidents and medical and surgical cases, in Market street, built in 1870 from designs by the late Mr. Peter Pons, of Altrincham, is a spacious edifice of brick and stone which has been considerably improved since its first erection, and now consists of board room, accident ward, men's medical and surgical wards, 3 women's wards, children's wards and one small ward. It contains 45 beds, of which 31 were occupied in 1901; the average number of patients for 1895 was 32. The hospital is managed by Miss Chloe Symonds, lady superintendent, 7 probationer nurses and 6 fully certificated other nurses, some of whom are available for attendance on out-patients. Adjoining is a Provident dispensary and hospital for outside cases. There is also a home where the nurses live, formerly the Oddfellows' Hall. Dr. Luckman attends the hospital on Tuesdays and Fridays from 4 to 5 p.m. for ophthalmic cases.

Stamford Public Park, comprising 16 acres, was formed out of Hale Moss, a piece of land given to the Local Board in 1879 by the 7th Earl of Stamford and Warrington; it has been laid out with walks and flower-beds, cricket, football and lawn tennis grounds and a bowling green, and a bathing pond has also been formed, at a cost of £5,000. This park is now under the control of the Urban District Council.

The neighbourhood contains a great many detached villa residences, principally occupied by Manchester merchants.

The Countess of Stamford and Warrington is lady of the manor and principal landowner.

The soil of the country around is well adapted for the growth of fruit and vegetables, particularly carrots and onions; the former have acquired a universal celebrity and are known as the Altrincham, or green-top, carrot.

The population of the township in 1881 was 11,249, in 1891, 12,440, and in 1901, 16,831; the acreage is 662; rateable value, £88,311.

ALVANLEY is a parish, township and small village, in a hilly district, 3 miles south-south-west from Frodsham and $1\frac{1}{2}$ south from the Helsby station on the London and North Western and Great Western joint railways, in the Eddisbury division of the county, Runcorn union and county court district, hundred and petty sessional division of Eddisbury, rural deanery of Frodsham and arch-deaconry and diocese of Chester. This place has furnished the title of baron to the Arderne or Arden family, but it became extinct on the death of the third baron in 1857. The church of St. John, situated near the site of an oratory, founded by Catherine Arderne in the reign of Henry VI. and erected in 1860, is a building of stone, consisting of chancel, nave of four bays, aisles, south porch and a small western turret containing 2 bells: there are four stained windows—two presented in the year 1875 by the Hon. Miss Arden of Tarporley; one to George Whitley esq. who died June 8th, 1819, and Annie his wife, who died 1875, and one to the Hon. Miss Catherine Emma Arden, who died June 4th, 1834: a brass lectern was presented in 1889, by the tenants of the Countess of Haddington, who died May 29th, 1889. The church affords 220 sittings. The register dates from the year 1790. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £232, with residence, in the gift of the Earl of Hadding-ton, and held since 1898 by the Rev. William Edwd. Colegrove M.A. of Oxford University. The vicarage house, erected by the late Lord Alvanley, stands on a rising ground near the village. Alvanley Castle, which stood near the church, has long disappeared, but traces of the moat remain. The Earl of Haddington owns nearly the whole of the land. The soil is sandy; subsoil, red sandstone; the chief crops are potatoes, wheat, oats and winter food for cattle. The area is 1,513 acres; rateable value, £2,551; population in 1901 was 319.

Sexton, Thomas Powles.

Church of England School, adjoining the church, erected, with master's house attached, in 1861, at the cost of the Hon. Miss Arden, for 140 children, average attendance, 100. The school was repaired in 1890 at a cost of £200. Joseph Morris Harnaman, master; Miss Beatrice Greenway & Miss Barbara Stott, assistant mistresses

GREAT BOUGHTON is a village and township in the parish of St. Oswald, Chester, partly within the limits of the municipal and parliamentary borough of Chester and bounded on the north by the river Dee; it is $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles south-east from the Cross, in the Eddisbury division of the county, lower division of the hundred of Broxton, union and county court district of Chester and petty sessional division of Chester Castle. During the Civil war this village was the scene of several encounters between the Royalists and Parliamentary forces; in 1644, Chester being then besieged by the latter, a detachment of the garrison sallied forth to attack a Parliamentary force posted in the adjoining village of Christleton; the skirmish began at Great Boughton, and after a severe struggle the Parliamentarians retired, but about 140 of the king's party were slain, most of them being citizens of Chester. The whole of Great Boughton, including the hall, was burned down by the garrison of Chester in order to prevent the enemy from re-occupying it. Most of the land is cultivated as market gardens, which furnish abundant supplies to the Chester market. Boughton Hall, the property of Mrs. Currie, and now (1902) the residence of James Garrett Frost esq. is an ancient mansion of the 17th century, with a good entrance porch; the hall has a floor of polished oak and a fireplace surrounded by Dutch tiles, and bearing the date 1655; it has been in the possession of the Currie family since the time of Henry VII. Mrs. Currie, of Eastbourne, is lady of the manor and principal landowner. The soil is loam; subsoil, clay. The chief crops are vegetables, strawberries &c. The area is 719 acres; rateable value, £7,216; the population in 1901 was 1,034, including officers and inmates in Tarvin workhouse.

Town Sub-Post, M. O. & T. O., Parcel Post, S. B. & Annuity & Insurance Office. Letters received from Chester arrive about 8 a.m. & 4 & 8 p.m.; dispatched at 5, 9.15 & 11.15 a.m. & 1, 4, 6 & 9 p.m. Telegrams can be handed in only at this office, & telegraph money orders are issued, but not paid

BOWDON.

BOWDON is an extensive parish and township, 9 miles south from Manchester, 7 from Knutsford, 12 from Northwich and 1 south-west from Altrincham, with a station locally in Stamford road, Altrincham, on the Manchester, South Junction and Altrincham railway, and connected also with the neighbouring stations on the London and North Western and Cheshire Lines railways (Hale Station), in the Altrincham division of the county, hundred and union of Bucklow, county court district of Altrincham, rural deanery of Bowdon, archdeaconry of Macclesfield and diocese of Chester. The town occupies a commanding eminence, affording fine views of the valley of Bollin and the surrounding country for many miles; its delightful and healthy situation, and the facilities of railway communication which it enjoys, have made it a popular place of residence for the wealthier classes of Manchester.

"The Local Government Act, 1858" was adopted 22 Jan. 1864, but the township, formerly under the control of a Local Board, is now governed by an Urban District Council, under the provisions of the "Local Government Act, 1894" (56 and 57 Vict. c. 73) and is supplied with water by the North Cheshire Water Co. The parish church of the Blessed Virgin Mary, first erected during the Saxon times, and thrice restored, according to a brass inscription in the interior, in the years 1100, 1320 and 1570, was rebuilt with enlargements, on the same site, in 1860, at a cost of £15,000, under the direction of Mr. W. H. Brakspear, architect, of Manchester, in the Transition style between the Decorated and Perpendicular periods, and is a cruciform edifice, consisting of chancel, with north and south chapels, transepts, clerestoried nave, north and south porches, and an embattled western tower, 91 feet in height, with pinnacles, and containing a clock and 6 bells: the base of the tower forms a western porch: both chapels were formerly the burying places of the Earls of Stamford and Warrington, but the present family vault is under the south or Dunham chapel: in the south or Dunham chapel is a fine mural monument with inscribed tablet sculptures and allegorical figures to Henry 2nd Baron Delamere and 1st Earl of Warrington, tried for high treason, but honourably acquitted, 1676; ob. 2 Jan. 1693-4; and to Mary (Langham) his countess, ob. 23 March, 1690-91; here also is another large mural monument, with Ionic pillars supporting a pediment adorned with figures of cherubs, and at the back a shield of arms of 60 quarterings and two medallion portraits; on the monument is a long inscription to the Hon. Langham Booth, d. 12 May, 1724; and to the Hon. Henry Booth, M.P. for Cheshire, 1661-80, d. 2 Feb. 1726-7: in Carrington chapel is a fine monument with recumbent effigies, to William Brereton esq. of Ashley, ob. 29 Aug. 1630, and Jane (Warburton) his wife, ob. 2 March, 1627; the figure of the former lies under an arch in the upper stage of the monument, and below, under a marble canopy, supported on pillars of the Corinthian order, is that of his wife; ten members of the Brereton family were buried here from 1570 to 1660, and the registers also record numerous baptisms: in the chancel proper is a brass to the Rev. John Kingsley M.A. formerly curate here, and some time vicar of Dunham Massey, d. Nov. 1869; and one to Ven. William Pollock D.D. vicar of Bowdon and archdeacon of Chester, d. 11 Oct. 1873; and there are other memorials to Thomas Assheton Smith esq. d. 1769, and Harriet his wife, d. 1778, and to Thomas, their son, d. 1774; and to Edward Jeremiah Lloyd esq. of Oldfield Hall, d. 3 July, 1850: the stained east window was presented by W. Nield esq. in memory of his wife, who died in 1859, and the west window, a memorial to Margaret Annie Clegg, was placed in 1854 by her parents; the large stained windows in the transepts were given by Lady Murray, of Oldfield Hall, and E. Joynson esq. of Bowdon, and there are five others, chiefly memorials: the font, presented in 1860 by Miss Joynson, consists of an octagonal basin of Painswick stone, richly carved, and supported on a shaft of Devonshire marble: the brass lectern was the gift in 1891 of F. G. Napier esq.: there are 1,164 sittings in addition to those in the Dunham chapel: the churchyard was levelled and inclosed by a wall and railings in 1860. The register dates from the year 1627. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £673, with 10 acres of glebe and residence, erected in 1864, in the gift of the Bishop of Chester, and held since 1873 by the Ven. Arthur Gore D.D. of Trinity College, Dublin, examining chaplain to the Bishop of Chester, Canon Residentiary of Chester Cathedral, and surrogate. The mission church of St. Luke in Vicarage lane, erected in 1882, is served from the parish church. The St. Paul's Wesleyan Methodist church, Enville road, erected in 1880, at a cost, including Sunday schools and minister's house, of £30,000, is a building of stone, in the Gothic style, from designs by Mr. W. H. Brakspear, architect, and will seat 700 persons. There are two other small Wesleyan Methodist chapels, one in Vicarage lane and the other in Hale road. The charities for distribution in bread, to be given away to the poor every Sunday, and in clothing, amount altogether to about £110 yearly; George Earl of Warrington left by will dated 22 July, 1754, a sum of £5,000, now (1896, of the capital value of £5,610), invested in Consols, for apprenticing, educating or clothing poor children, or for clothing or affording other relief to aged persons; Walton's, Cooke's, and Bagshaw's charities produce £216 yearly for educational purposes and bedding. The Working Men's Conservative Club is in Priory street. The Countess of Stamford and Warrington is lady of the manor and chief landowner. The population of the township and urban district in 1901 was 2,788; the acreage, 845; rateable value, £28,354.

Parish Clerk, Henry Goulden.

Bowdon comprises the townships of Agden, Altrincham, Ashley, Baguley, Bollington, Carrington, Dunham Massey, Hale, Partington and Timperley, all of which are given under separate headings.

The Bridgewater canal, now the property of the Manchester Ship Canal Co. passes through the township. The church of St. Margaret, erected in 1853-5, at the sole cost of the 7th Earl of Stamford and Warrington, estimated at £20,000, and consecrated 13 June, 1855, is a fine building of stone in the Perpendicular style from designs by Mr. William Hayley, architect, of Manchester, and consists of chancel, clerestoried nave, south or Stamford chapel, aisles, transepts, south porch and a noble embattled tower with pinnacles, a ribbed spire and enriched flying buttresses, rising to an altitude of 210 feet and surmounted by a gilt cross; the tower contains a clock and 10 bells, the tenor weighing 1 ton 7 cwt. 3 qrs. and a set of 14 bells for chimes, all cast by Messrs. Taylor & Son, of Loughborough: the Stamford chapel, entered by a private door, has a richly-worked roof with pendant and is inclosed on two sides by oak screens of beautiful design: the Decorated east window, 30 by 14 feet, with rich tracery, is filled with stained glass representing prophets and saints, and all the windows in the transepts and north and east aisles contain stained glass representing different scriptural subjects: the pulpit, reredos and font are all of Caen stone, exquisitely carved; the reredos has seven divisions, each filled with an enriched canopy, the centre three projecting from and rising above the others; richly-traceried buttresses with crockets and finials support these, and the whole is surmounted by an enriched cornice and Tudor-flower battlement: the organ was enlarged in 1876: the nave has an open-framed oak roof, with curved ribs and hammer beams, at the ends of which are richly-executed figures of angels with expanded wings: the chancel roof is divided into panels with a large boss in the centre: the church is seated with open oak benches, and affords 630 sittings. The register dates from the year 1855. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £414, in the gift of the trustees of the late Earl of Stamford, and held since 1895 by the Ven. Charles Maxwell Woosnam M.A. of Trinity College, Cambridge, archdeacon of Macclesfield, and surrogate. All Saints', built in 1898 as a chapel of ease to St. Margaret's, is in Regent road, Altrincham. The register dates from the year 1864. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £285, with residence, in the gift of the vicar of Bowdon, and held since 1893 by the Rev. HALE is an urban district, much scattered, formerly in Bowdon parish, but by Order of the County Council was formed into a separate parish March 31, 1900, in Altrincham division of the county, Bucklow hundred and union, Altrincham petty sessional division and county court district, about a mile south and east from Altrincham, consisting principally of private residences occupied by business men from Manchester; the district is rapidly devoping, and fast becoming a residential suburb of the City and Port of Manchester. The Cheshire Lines railway from Altrincham to Chester, which runs in connection with the Great Northern, the Midland and Great Central railways, passes through the parish, and has a station here.

Hale is governed by an Urban District Council of twelve members, formed in 1900. St. Peter's, in Ashley road, a chapel of ease to Bowdon parish church, was opened in 1892 and erected at a cost of upwards of £7,000; there are 400 sittings. Hale Barns is a hamlet in Hale town-ship. The chapel of ease at Hale Barns, erected in 1882 at a cost of £800, in connection with All Saints', Ringway, is an edifice in the black and white timbered style, and will seat 150 persons. The Congregational chapel in Ashley road, built in 1899 at a cost of £4,500, is a structure of red brick, and will seat 400 persons. Near here is also a Unitarian chapel, erected in 1721, with 160 sittings, and in connection with it a Sunday school, founded in 1787 and held in a building erected in 1880. The Wesleyan Methodist chapel, in Henry street, Hale road, erected in 1880, is of brick, and will seat 100 persons. Altrincham Girls' Home, Ashley road, Hale, founded by F. W. Crossley-esq. of Star Hall, Manchester, was erected in 1883, for the reception of 60 children, and there were in 1901 54 children: the home is supported by voluntary subscriptions; it formerly consisted of two separate blocks, but one of these was transferred by Mrs. Crossley, in 1897, to the Manchester and Salford Police Orphanage, and had in 1901 10 children. The principal landowners are Earl Egerton of Tatton, the trustees of the late Sir William Cunliffe Brooks bart. (d. 1900), the trustees of J. Harrop esq. and Joseph Harrop Clibran, and John Richardson esq. The Countess of Stamford and Warrington is lady of the manor. The soil generally is sand and gravel, with here and there a stiff clay. The population in 1881 was 2,221, and in 1891 was 2,803, and in 1901 was 4,562; the area is 37,080 acres of land, about 34 of which are included in Hale Moss, adjoining to Altrincham, and 16 of water; the rateable value is £35,765.

Ringway, formerly a hamlet in Hale township, has been formed into a separate civil parish, and will be found under a separate heading.

HALTON (or Haulton) is a township and village and was formed into a parish, including Norton, Stockham, Rock Savage and Astmoor, July 3, 1860, from the civil parish of Runcorn; it is in the Knutsford division of the county, Bucklow hundred, petty sessional division, union and county court district of Runcorn, and in the rural deanery of Frodsham, and archdeaconry and diocese of Chester. Halton village, standing on the top of an eminence commanding a fine view of the rivers Mersey and Weaver, is a mile and a half south-east of Runcorn, and has a station about $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles south from the village on the London and North Western and Great Western joint railways: the village is lighted with gas and supplied with water from works at Runcorn. The church of St. Mary the Virgin, standing on an eminence, is a building of red sandstone in the Gothic style, designed by the late Sir Gilbert Scott R.A. and consisting of chancel, clerestoried nave of four bays, aisles, south porch and a turret on the eastern gable of the nave containing one bell: there are 415 sittings, of which 164 are free. The registers date from the year 1732. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value, £230, with 80 acres of glebe and residence, in the gift of Sir R. Marcus Brooke bart. and held since 1888 by the Rev. George Daniel Wray M.A. of Jesus College, Cambridge. The Wesleyan chapel, erected in 1875, at a cost of £4,000, at the expense of the late Thomas Hazlehurst esq. is a building of stone in the Gothic style, and has a tower with spire: it affords 320 sittings. A cemetery of one acre was formed in 1885 at a cost of £500, and is under the control of the Parish Council. Brooke's almshouses, founded in 1769 and endowed with £54 12s. yearly, are for six poor and decayed honest servants; each inmate receives 4s. weekly. Fairs and markets were formerly held here. The charities for distribution in fuel and money amount to £36 yearly, and there is also a sum of £11, for the support and repair of the library founded here in 1733 by Sir John Chesshyre kt. of Hallwood, first serjeant-at-law to George II. ob. 15 May, 1738, and buried in Runcorn church, where there is a monument: the library is a small detached building, and over the entrance is an inscription recording the foundation and the appointment of the curate as perpetual librarian. Halton Castle, now, and for a long period in ruins, was built A.D. 1071 by Hugh de Abrincis, surnamed "Lupus," first palatine Earl of Chester: it subsequently became the property of the Crown, in right of the Duchy of Lancaster, which has still a large jurisdiction in the country included in Halton Fee, or the honor of Halton, and maintains a court of record. At the Castle inn, which stands within the ruins, courts leet have been held annually for over 700 years; attached to the inn is a good bowling green. Sir Richard Marcus Brooke bart. of Norton Priory, is lord of the manor and chief landowner. The population of the township in 1901 was 1,238, and the acreage is 1,851 of land, 19 of water and 233 of foreshore; the rateable value, £5,765. The soil is clayey, resting on rock. The area of the parish is 5,101 acres; rateable value, £17,841; the population in 1901 was 2,508.

By Local Government Board Order 15,915 (24 March, 1884) and by the provisions of the Divided Parishes Act, 1882, part of Halton has been transferred to Runcorn.

Parish Clerk, Alfred Povey.

ASTMOOR is a hamlet in the township of Halton, a mile and a half from Runcorn, on the Bridgewater canal.

NORTON is an agricultural township and village, with a station on the Chester and Runcorn section of the London and North Western and Great Western joint railways, $3\frac{1}{2}$ miles north-east from Frodsham, 5 south-west from Warrington and 3 east from Runcorn: the township is intersected by the Bridgewater canal, now the property of the Manchester Ship Canal Co. In this township stands a lofty water tower of red sandstone, 113 feet in height, and 80 feet in diameter, erected by the corporation of Liverpool as part of their undertaking for the supply of water to that city from the great reservoir at Vyrnwy, in Montgomeryshire; the tank in the tower holds 3,000 tons (672,000 gallons) of water, which descends on the Cheshire side of the Mersey, through pipes laid in a shaft 86 feet deep, and is carried under the Mersey at a point about $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles from Runcorn, by means of a tunnel 900 feet in length and 10 feet wide, lined with iron; on the Lancashire side the water ascends through a similar arrangement of pipes, and is thence conveyed to Prescott. Norton Priory, the seat of Sir Richard Marcus Brooke bart. J.P. is a fine old mansion, pleasantly situated in a park of about 115 acres. The Augustinian priory of St. Mary, once existing here, was founded in 1210 by William, son of Nigel, constable of Chester, having been removed hither in 1135 from Runcorn, where it was first established; he endowed it with lands in the counties of Nottingham, Leicester and Oxford, which endowment his son Roger confirmed and granted, amongst other privileges, two deer out of his park at Halton every year upon the Feast of the Assumption. Edward the Black Prince was also a great benefactor to this priory; in the time of Henry VI. it was raised to the rank of an abbey: Sir R. M. Brooke bart. J.P. is lord of the manor and sole landowner. The soil and the subsoil are clay; the chief crops are wheat, oats and potatoes.
