THE Proprietors trust that the present—the eighth—Edition of KELLY'S DIRECTORY OF CHESHIRE may be found at least equal in accuracy to the previous ones.

Every parish in the county will again be found to be included in the book, which, though necessarily above all things a Directory, still continues in some measure to be a gazetteer, giving as it does a topographical account of every Town, Parish, Village and Township, and descriptions of the principal buildings and objects of interest.

Full information as to the County Council ; the Hundreds, Unions and County Court Districts ; the Churches, with the value of the Livings and the names of the Patrons and Incumbents ; the Chief Landowners, with details as to the Principal Seats ; the Hospitals and Charities, whether general or local ; the Acreage, Soils and Crops ; the Markets and Fairs ; the means of Conveyance by Railway, etc., will be found in its pages.

The Map of the County has been specially corrected for this Edition.

The Proprietors have again to return their thanks to those Clergymen, Magistrates' Clerks, Registrars and other Gentlemen who have assisted their Agents while collecting the information for the present Edition.

ALTRINCHAM.

ALTRINCHAM (or, as it is frequently written, Altring-ham) is a market town and parish, 30 miles northeast from Chester, 7 north-east from Knutsford, 9 west from Stockport, 8 south-south-west from Manchester, 11 east from Warrington, 1½ from Bolton, 30 from Liverpool and 193½ from London, and is within the Altrincham division of the county, and in the rural deanery of Bowdon, and archdeaconry of Macclesfield and diocese of Chester: it is also in the hundred and union of Bucklow, the latter having been formed in 1895 in place of the old

Altrincham union. The town is an important railway centre, and has four separate but connected stations:—
Altrincham and Bowdon station, in Stamford road, near the centre of the town, belonging to the Manchester, South Junction and Altrincham railway; Hale station, at the southern extremity of the town, on the Cheshire Lines railway; Broadheath station, to the north, on the London and North Western line; and West Timperley station, north of the town, on the Cheshire Lines railway.

The Bridgewater canal, now the property of the Manchester Ship Canal Co. intersects the township for three-quarters of a mile at Broadheath.

Altrincham was constituted a Local Government District 18 Feb. 1851, under the provisions of the "Public Health Act, 1848" (11 & 12 Vict. c. 63), and was under the control of a Local Board, until, under the provisions of the "Local Government Act, 1894" (56 and 57 Vict. c. 73), the present Urban District Council was established. The Urban District is divided into five wards.

Hamon de Massey, lord of Dunham Massey, by charter in the reign of Edward I. (circ. 1290), granted to the town the position of a free borough, instituting burgesses, and a gild merchant, and authorised the burgesses to elect a praepositus or bailiff, now styled "mayor," and this charter "is still preserved, enclosed in a circular oak case or box, shaped like an inverted cone, two or three inches in diameter." The mayor is still appointed annually at the Michaelmas court leet of the lord of the barony, by the steward, but he possesses no magisterial authority, and his duties appear to have been confined to the opening of the fairs, which are now obsolete; there is no corporate seal, chain or badge of any kind. The arms of the town are "quarterly, gu. and or. in the first quarter a lion pass. arg."

The town, which occupies a very healthy situation, comprises several wide streets, and is lighted with gas from works at Hale Moss, about half-a-mile east, erected about 1850, and covering 4½ acres; the works are the property of a company, incorporated in 1872, and the water supply is from Manchester, with two reservoirs at Bowdon, of the North Cheshire Water Company.

St. George's is an ecclesiastical parish, first formed out of the mother parish of Bowdon, Aug. 28, 1860, and made a separate parish in 1868.

The church, in Church street, built by subscription in 1799, and twice enlarged, was rebuilt in 1896 from designs by Messrs. Paley and Austin, architects, at a cost of £5,500, and reopened Nov. 17, 1897: it consists of chancel, nave, aisles and a western tower containing one bell: the stained east window, a memorial to Samuel and Ann Hardy, was presented by their daughter, Sarah Holland, in 1861: the west window is a memorial to William P. Grimble Groves, and was placed in 1897: the fine alabaster pulpit is a memorial to John Newton esq.: the alabaster wainscot of the chancel was given in 1898 by Charles Newton and Henry Fairbrother esqs.: the alabaster font is a memorial to the Rev. George London, vicar 1860-1894: the stained glass of the seven windows in the north aisle was all removed from the old church and replaced in the original tracery: the brass lectern was given by Henry Fairbrother esq.: the church will seat 700 persons. The register dates from the year 1799. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £302, chiefly derived from pew rents, with residence, in the gift of the vicar of Bowdon for the time being, and held since 1893 by the Rev. Ernest Robert Tarbuck B.A. of the University of London, and surrogate. The vicarage house is near the church.

St. John the Evangelist's is an ecclesiastical parish, formed Nov. 5, 1867, out of Bowdon St. Margaret, Dunham Massey and Timperley. The church, erected in 1866, at a cost of over £8,000, is a building of stone in the Gothic style, consisting of chancel, nave, aisles, transepts, south and west porches, and a south-west tower with octagonal spire. The church affords 950 sittings, of which half are free. The register dates from the year 1866. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £366, with residence, in the gift of the Bishop of Chester, and held since 1866 by the Rev. Frederick Wainwright M.A. of Trinity College, Cambridge.

St. Elizabeth's mission church, in Pownall street, erected in 1890, will seat 300 persons. The Rev. Leonard Thomas William Parr B.A. of Oxford University, has been curate in charge since 1905.

All Saints', Regent road, is a chapel-of-ease to St. Margarets, Dunham Massey, from which it is served, and has sittings for 300 persons.

The Catholic church of St. Vincent de Paul, at the junction of Bentinck and Groby roads, was completed in 1906.

The Baptist chapel in Hale road, erected in 1887, has 450 sittings.

Bowdon Downs Congregational chapel was erected in 1839, and has 800 sittings. There is a Congregational chapel in Manchester road, Broadheath, built in 1865, seating 500 persons, and one in Ashley road, Hale, opened in 1899, with 300 sittings.

The Methodist New Connexion chapel in George street was erected in 1820, and there is a Primitive Methodist chapel in Oxford road and Devonshire road; the Unitarian chapel in Dunham road, erected in 1876, will seat 350 persons.

The Wesleyan Methodist chapel in Woodlands road, built in 1866 at a cost of £7,000, is of stone, in the Romanesque style, and will seat 750 persons, and the Wesleyan Methodist chapel, Broadheath, erected in 1899, at a cost of £1,700, has sittings for 350 persons.

The Welsh Calvinistic Methodist chapel, in Willow Tree road, was built in 1903 at a cost of £924, and will seat 180.

Trinity mission hall, Police street, erected in 1891, is in connection with the Presbyterian church, Delamere road, Dunham Massey.

The Salvation Army hall is in George street.

The Bible Christians' Meeting room is at 5 George street, and the Christians' meeting room in Ashfield road.

Mr. George Wood's Bible Class for Working Men meets in Pownall street.

The Altrincham Urban Council Cemetery, Hale road, opened 12th December, 1894, at a cost of about £9,000, covers an area of 10 acres, of which 5 only are at present enclosed. It contains a small chapel, which is used for all denominations and is governed by the Altrincham Urban District Council.

The Town Hall, in Market street, erected in 1901 from the designs of Messrs. Hindle and Davenport, of Manchester, is a structure of red brick and red sandstone dressings in the Jacobean style; it contains a large hall with mosaic floor; the council chamber, 35 ft. by 26 ft. with a panelled ceiling and stained windows, displaying the arms of the Barons of Chester and the principal Cheshire families; the carved oak chairs were specially designed and made by Mr. Joseph Phillips, of Altrincham: here also are the offices of the clerk, surveyor, rate collector and overseers; the staircase windows bear the Royal arms and those of Altrincham, Chester and Manchester. Adjoining is the Fire Station, where is kept a steam fire engine belonging to the Urban District Council; the force comprises 12 men and a superintendent; there is a comfortably fitted-up room for the firemen, and also a mortuary.

The old Town Hall, near the Market place, erected by the Earl of Stamford and Warrington in 1849, is an edifice of red brick with stone dressings, relieved in front by a bell turret with clock; the lower portion is now used as a grain store, above which, and extending along the whole length of the building, is an assembly room 66 feet by 30, now attached to the Unicorn hotel and used for public and masonic meetings, balls and lectures; it will seat about 300 persons.

The Market hall, in Market street, erected in 1879, at a cost of £5,000, from the designs of Mr. M. A. Roscoe, architect, of Altrincham, is of brick in the Italian style, the whole enclosing a space of about 90 feet by 60.

The market for butter, eggs, poultry, rabbits, fruit and drapery is held on Tuesdays, weekly.

Cabinet making is carried on. At Broadheath are coal wharfs on the Bridgewater Canal undertaking; there are also iron foundries, timber yards, saw mills, nurseries and photographic apparatus manufactories. The works of the Linotype and Machinery Limited here cover about 14 acres of ground, and employ some 1,500 people, most of whom reside on the adjoining Linotype Estate, on which the company have erected workmen's houses.

An agricultural and horticultural show is held annually. The public slaughter houses, built in 1870, on the outskirts of the town, have been taken over by the Urban District Council, and new and much improved premises were added in 1904.

The Sessions house and Police station in Dunham road is an edifice of brick and stone erected in 1866 and enlarged in 1903. Attached are retiring rooms for the magistrates, police office and lock-ups, with residence for the superintendent on one side, and a parade ground at the back; on the premises is a fire bell; the County Court is also held here.

Altrincham Conservative club, in Market street, erected in 1882 at a cost of £2,000, is a structure of white brick in the Italian style and contains billiard, reading, smoking, lecture and committee rooms, a bar, and a manager's residence, and has a spacious and well-kept bowling green adjoining. It is the Conservative centre for the Altrincham division of the county.

The Altrincham Jubilee Baths, Stamford New road, under the management of the Urban District Council, erected in commemoration of the 60th year of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, are of brick, and include a swimming bath 60 feet by 20 feet, and five slipper baths.

The Altrincham Free Library, Public Hall and Technical school, formerly the Altrincham and Bowdon Literary Institution, first established in 1847, occupies premises in George street, erected in 1852 at a cost of £800 on a site given by the 7th Earl of Stamford and Warrington, and enlarged in 1892 at a cost of £6,000; it comprises a library of 10,000 volumes, reading room supplied with daily, weekly and monthly papers and periodicals, and a spacious Lecture Hall, 71 feet by 36 feet, which is licensed for dramatic performances. During the winter season, Science, Art and Commercial classes are held under the Technical Instruction Acts 1889 and 1891, and in connection with the Science and Art Department of the Committee of Council on Education, the Union of Lancashire and Cheshire Institutions and the City and Guilds of London Institutes. An exhibition of drawings is held annually.

The Institution and Library are managed by the Altrincham Urban District Council, with the assistance of 12 honorary members.

Charities.—The Altrincham Workhouse Trust produces £230 yearly. The Mayor's Land Charity produces about £250 a year for public uses, out of which a sum of £45 is annually given to the mayor. The Cooper's trust, of about £20, is for distribution in kind and money.

Lloyd's Fever Hospital, in Lloyd street, was erected in 1853 at a cost of £600, on a site given by the late Earl of Stamford and Warrington, as a memorial to Edward Jeremiah Lloyd, esq. of Oldfield Hall (d. 1830), and endowed by Mrs. Lloyd with a legacy of £1,000. The hospital, which in 1877 was transferred to the old Local Board of Health, is now controlled by the Urban District Council; it contains 4 wards, 2 bath rooms and sitting room, matron's and servants' apartments and the usual offices. There are 36 beds. The average number of patients is about 60 yearly.

The General Hospital for accidents and medical and surgical cases, in Market street, built in 1870 from designs by the late Mr. Peter Pons, of Altrincham, is a spacious edifice of brick and stone which has been considerably improved since its first erection, and now consists of board room, accident ward, men's medical and surgical wards, 3 women's wards, children's wards and one small ward. It contains 45 beds. The hospital is managed by Miss Chloe Symonds, lady superintendent, seven probationer nurses and six fully certificated other nurses, some of whom are available for attendance on out-patients. Adjoining is a Provident dispensary and hospital for outside cases. There is also a home where the nurses live, formerly the Oddfellows' Hall.

Stamford Public Park, comprising 16 acres, was formed out of Hale Moss, a piece of land given to the Local Board in 1879 by the 7th Earl of Stamford and Warrington; it has been laid out with walks and flower-beds, cricket, football and lawn tennis grounds and a bowling green, and a bathing pond has also been formed, at a cost of £5,000. This park is now under the control of the Urban District Council.

The neighbourhood contains a great many detached villa residences, principally occupied by Manchester merchants.

The Countess of Stamford and Warrington is lady of the manor and principal landowner.

The soil of the country around is well adapted for the growth of fruit and vegetables, particularly carrots and onions; the former have acquired a universal celebrity and are known as the Altrincham, or green-top, carrot.

BOWDON

BOWDON is an extensive parish and township, 9 miles south from Manchester, 7 from Knutsford, 12 from Northwich and 1 south-west from Altrincham, with a station locally in Stamford road, Altrincham, on the Manchester, South Junction and Altrincham railway, and connected also with the neighbouring stations on the London and North Western and Cheshire Lines railways (Hale Station), in the Altrincham division of the county, hundred and union of Bucklow, county court district of Altrincham, rural deanery of Bowdon, archdeaconry of Macclesfield and diocese of Chester. The town occupies a commanding eminence, affording fine views of the valley of Bollin and the surrounding country for many miles; its delightful and healthy situation, and the facilities of railway communication which it enjoys, have made it a popular place of residence for the wealthier classes of Manchester.

"The Local Government Act, 1858" was adopted 22 Jan. 1864, but the township, formerly under the control of a Local Board, is now governed by an Urban District Council, under the provisions of the "Local Government Act, 1894" (56 and 57 Vict. c. 73) and is supplied with water by the North Cheshire Water Co.

The Urban District is divided into East, North, South and West Wards.

The parish church of the Blessed Virgin Mary, first erected during the Saxon times, and thrice restored, according to a brass inscription in the interior, in the years 1100, 1320 and 1570, was rebuilt with enlargements, on the same site, in 1860, at a cost of £15,000, under the direction of Mr. W. H. Brakspear, architect, of Manchester, in the Transition style between the Decorated and Perpendicular periods, and is a cruciform edifice, consisting of chancel, with north and south chapels, transepts, clerestoried nave, north and south porches, and an embattled western tower, 91 feet in height, with pinnacles, and containing a clock and 6 bells: the base of the tower forms a western porch: both chapels were formerly the burying places of the Earls of Stamford and Warrington, but the present family vault is under the south or Dunham chapel: in the south or Dunham chapel is a fine mural monument with inscribed tablet, sculptures and allegorical figures to Henry 2nd Baron Delamere and 1st Earl of Warrington, tried for high treason, but honourably acquitted, 1676; ob. 2 Jan. 1693-4; and to Mary (Langham) his countess, ob. 23 March, 1690-91; here also is another large mural monument, with Ionic pillars supporting a pediment adorned with figures of cherubs, and at the back a shield of arms of 60 quarterings and two medallion portraits; on the monument is a long inscription to the Hon. Langham Booth, d. 12 May, 1724; and to the Hon. Henry Booth, M.P. for Cheshire, 1661-80, d. 2 Feb. 1726-7: in Carrington chapel is a fine monument with recumbent effigies, to William Brereton esq. of Ashley, ob. 29 Aug. 1630, and Jane (Warburton) his wife, ob. 2 March, 1627; the figure of the former lies under an arch in the upper stage of the monument, and below, under a marble canopy, supported on pillars of the Corinthian order, is that of his wife; ten members of the Brereton family were buried here from 1570 to 1660, and the registers also record numerous baptisms: in the chancel proper is a brass to the Rev. John Kingsley M.A. formerly curate here, and some time vicar of Dunham Massey, d. Nov. 1869; and one to Ven. William Pollock D.D. vicar of Bowdon and archdeacon of Chester, d. 11 Oct. 1873; and there are other memorials to Thomas Assheton Smith esq. d. 1769, and Harriet his wife, d. 1778, and to Thomas, their son, d. 1774; and to Edward Jeremiah Lloyd esq. of Oldfield Hall, d. 3 July, 1850: the stained east window was presented by W. Nield esq. in memory of his wife, who died in 1859, and the west window, a memorial to Margaret Annie Clegg, was placed in 1854 by her parents; the large stained windows in the transepts were given by Lady Murray, of Oldfield Hall, and E. Joynson esq. of Bowdon, and there are five others, chiefly memorials: the font, presented in 1860 by Miss Joynson, consists of an octagonal basin of Painswick stone, richly carved, and supported on a shaft of Devonshire marble: the brass lectern was the gift in 1891 of F. G. Napier esq.: there are 1,164 sittings in addition to those in the Dunham chapel: the churchyard was levelled and inclosed by a wall and railings in 1860. The register dates from the year 1627. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £673, with 10 acres of glebe and residence, erected in 1864, in the gift of the Bishop of Chester, and held since 1873 by the Rev. Arthur Gore D.D. of Trinity College, Dublin, examining chaplain to the Bishop of Chester, canon residentiary of Chester Cathedral, and surrogate. The mission church of St. Luke, in Vicarage lane, erected in 1882, is served from the parish church. The St. Paul's Wesleyan Methodist chapel, Enville road, erected in 1880, at a cost, including Sunday schools and minister's house, of £30,000, is a building of stone, in the Gothic style, from designs by Mr. W. H. Brakspear, architect, and will seat 700 persons. There are two other small Wesleyan Methodist chapels, one in Vicarage lane and one in Priory street. The charities for distribution in bread, to be given away to the poor every Sunday, and in clothing, amount altogether to about £110 yearly; George Earl of Warrington left by will dated 22 July, 1754, a sum of £5,000, in 1902 of the capital value of £5,610, invested in Consols, for apprenticing, educating or clothing poor children, or for clothing or affording other relief to aged persons; Walton's, Cooke's, and Bagshaw's charities produce £216 yearly for educational purposes and bedding. The Earl of Stamford is lord of the manor and chief landowner. The population of the township and Urban District in 1901 was 2,788; the acreage, 845 acres of land and 5 of water; rateable value in 1910, £29,845.

Parish Clerk, Henry Goulden.

BRADWALL, see Elworth.

BREDBURY is an extensive parish, $\frac{1}{2}$ miles north-east from Stockport, with a station on the Great Central (late M., S. and L.) and Midland Joint railway, and $\frac{1}{2}$ miles south-west from Romiley station on the same line, in the Hyde division of the county, hundred of Macclesfield, Stockport union and county court district, petty sessional division of Stockport, rural deanery of Stockport, archdeaconry of Macclesfield and diocese of Chester.

The "Local Government Act, 1858," was adopted here 6th January, 1865, and the district has since been extended under the Act 43 and 44 Vict. c. 58 (1880) so as to include Romiley. The former Local Board has been superseded by an Urban District Council, under the provisions of the "Local Government Act, 1894" (56 and 57. Vict. c. 73). By the Stockport Borough Extension Order of 1901, 193 acres of Bredbury parish were added to the Borough of Stockport, and by the Bredbury and Romiley Extension Order of 1902, part of the parish of Brinnington, 461 acres, was added to the parish of Bredbury. The ecclesiastical parish was formed Sept. 8, 1846, from the parish of Stockport. The church of St. Mark, erected in 1848 at a cost of £3,330, is a building of stone in the Early English style, consisting of chancel, nave of five bays, aisles, west porch and a western tower with pinnacles containing a clock with four dials and one bell: in the chancel is a memorial window to Zipporah, wife of the late W. C. Vaudrey esq. d. 10th May, 1873, and to Harriet, his sister, d. 27th December, 1868, and another to the Misses Rowbotham, erected in 1908: the brass lectern was presented in memory of Thomas Wild esq.: a carved oak pulpit and prayer desk were provided in 1892 by public subscription, as a memorial to the Rev. James Whittaker B.A. vicar here 1846-91, and an oak eredos was presented by Mr. T. Clegg, of Holly Mount, Bredbury, in 1906: the church affords 740 sittings, of which 338 are free: the lychn gate was erected in 1901 in memory of Mr. Clegg Livesey, by his widow and daughters, at a cost of about £300. The register dates from the year 1846. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £298, with residence, in the gift of the Bishop of Chester, and held since 1900 by the Rev. Stephen Percival Gray L.Th. and Assoc. of K.C.Lond. and surrogate. Charities:—The sum of £25 18s. yearly, derived from the Barrack Hill school property, is applied to educational purposes here in the form of yearly prizes in money to children who have been for three years in regular attendance at any elementary school in Bredbury or Romiley. Bredbury Hall, the property of the trustees of Ralph Horsfield esq. is now the residence of Louis Hyde esq. The area of the parish of Bredbury, as reduced by the addition to Stockport, is 2,471 acres of land and 66 of water; rateable value, £34,160; that of the Urban District of Bredbury and Romiley, 3,726; rateable value, £52,431. The population of Bredbury in 1901 was 4,671, that of the Urban District, 7,087, viz.:—Bredbury, 4,671; Romiley, 2,416.

HATHERLOW and WOODLEY are hamlets in this parish. There is a Congregational chapel at George lane, built in 1876; another at Hatherlow, erected in 1846, first founded in 1645, and a Primitive Methodist chapel at Woodley, erected in 1868. In the parish are collieries, brickfields and various factories. At Woodley are wool carding mills, machinery works and several foundries and steel works. At Woodley is a junction station on the Great Central railway, and at Bredbury a station on the Great Central and Midland Joint railways.

HALTON (or Haulton) is a township and village and was formed into a parish, including Norton, Stockham, Rock Savage and Astmoor, July 3, 1860, from the civil parish of Runcorn; it is in the Knutsford division of the county, Bucklow hundred, petty sessional division, union and county court district of Runcorn, and in the rural deanery of Frodsham, and archdeaconry and diocese of Chester. Halton village, standing on the top of an eminence commanding a fine view of the rivers Mersey and Weaver, is a mile and a half south-east of Runcorn, and has a station about 1½ miles south from the village on the London and North Western and Great Western joint railways: the village is lighted with gas and supplied with water from works at Runcorn. The church of St. Mary the Virgin, standing on an eminence, is a building of red sandstone in the Gothic style, designed by the late Sir Gilbert Scott R.A. and consisting of chancel, clerestoried nave of four bays, aisles, south porch and a turret on the eastern gable of the nave containing one bell: there are 415 sittings, of which 164 are free. The registers date from the year 1732. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value, £230, with 80 acres of glebe and residence, in the gift of Sir B. Marcus Brooke bart. and held since 1907 by the Rev. Ernest Godwin Greenham, and surrogate. The Wesleyan chapel, erected in 1875, at a cost of £4,000, at the expense of the late Thomas Hazlehurst esq. is a building of stone in the Gothic style, and has a tower with spire: it affords 300 sittings. A cemetery of one acre was formed in 1885 at a cost of £500, and is under the control of the Parish Council. Brooke's almshouses, founded in 1769 and endowed with £54 12s. yearly, are for six poor and decayed honest servants; each inmate receives 4s. weekly. The charities for distribution in fuel and money amount to £36 yearly, and there is also a sum of £11 for the support and repair of the library founded here in 1733 by Sir John Cheshyre kt. of Hallwood, first serjeant-at-law to George II. ob. 15 May, 1738, and buried in Runcorn church, where there is a monument: the library is a small detached building, and over the entrance is an inscription recording the foundation and the appointment of the curate as perpetual librarian. Halton Castle, now and for a long period in ruins, was built A.D. 1071 by Hugh de Abrincis, surnamed "Lupus," first palatine Earl of Chester: it subsequently became the property of the Crown, in right of the Duchy of Lancaster, which has still a large jurisdiction in the country included in Halton Fee, or the honor of Halton, and maintains a court of record. At the Castle inn, which stands within the ruins, courts leet have been held annually for over 700 years; attached to the inn is a good bowling green. Sir Richard Marcus Brooke bart. of Norton Priory, is lord of the manor and chief landowner. The soil is clayey, resting on rock. The population of the township in 1901 was 1,238, and the acreage is 1,813 of land, 39 of inland and 19 of tidal water and 235 of foreshore; the rateable value, £6,312. The population of the ecclesiastical parish in 1901 was 2,066.

The Shropshire Union canal passes through the township. The church of St. Jude, erected about 1836, at a cost of £1,800, by Lord Tollemache of Helmingham, is an edifice of stone in the Lancet style, consisting of a nave only and an open western turret containing one bell: there are two large mural monuments in memory of the Tollemache families: the organ was given by the late Sir Gilbert Greenall 1st bart. (d. 1894) in 1892: in 1905 a carved oak reredos and altar were added, chancel floor relaid and interior of church decorated at a cost of £450: there are 250 sittings. The living was constituted a vicarage in accordance with Act 19 and 20 Vict. ch. 104 sec. 12 on the voidance of the Benefice of Bunbury in 1907, net yearly value £194, with residence, in the gift of the Bishop of Chester, and held since 1908 by the Rev. Herbert Russell Sherwen M.A. of Pembroke College, Cambridge. A Parish Room was erected in 1893 at a cost of £150, raised by subscription. Tilstone Lodge, the residence of Cyril Dewhurst esq. is a mansion pleasantly seated in a small but beautiful park, on the south side of which is a large sheet of water. TIMPERLEY is a scattered village and township, formed into a parish in 1852 from the parish of Bowdon; it is on the old road from Altrincham to Stockport, $\frac{7}{8}$ miles south from Manchester, $\frac{3}{4}$ north-north-east from Knutsford, 13 from Northwich, $\frac{1}{2}$ north from Altrincham, 1 mile south from Timperley station on the Manchester,

South Junction and Altrincham railway, and half a mile from Baguley station on the Stockport and Warrington section of the Cheshire Lines railway; there is also a station in the parish on the latter line called West Timperley. The parish is in the Altrincham division of the county, east division of Bucklow hundred and union, Altrincham county court district, rural deanery of Bowdon, archdeaconry of Macclesfield and diocese of Chester. The Bridgewater canal runs through a part of the township. Christ Church, erected on a site given by John Barratt esq. consecrated and opened 27 Sept. 1849, and enlarged in 1864, is an edifice of Runcorn freestone in mixed styles, consisting of chancel, nave, aisles, transept, south porch and a western tower with spire containing one bell: a vestry was built in 1900 and an organ provided at a cost of £800, defrayed by the parishioners: the church affords 750 sittings. The register dates from the year 1849. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £345, with residence, in the gift of trustees, and held since 1905 by the Rev. George Daniel Wray M.A. of Jesus College, Cambridge. Here is a Wesleyan Methodist chapel, built in 1846. St. Andrew's school, in Deansgate lane, is used as a mission church, and is licensed for baptisms and Holy Communion; it will seat about 200. A recreation ground, consisting of 3½ acres, and provided with gymnasium and swings &c. was opened, at a cost of £600, in 1898. Pickering Lodge is the residence of William H. Clarke esq. and Timperley Lodge, of George Hartley esq. Oak Mount is the residence of Sir Bosdin Thomas Leech J.P. Timperley Hall is now occupied by the Timperley Golf Club. Riddings Hall, now a farmhouse, is an ancient building, approached through a stone archway and surrounded by a moat, but a great portion of the house has been modernized. Fir Tree Farmhouse is another ancient dwelling of timber and plaster with projecting gables, and has over the doorway the date 1676. The trustees of the Earl of Stamford, who is a minor, are lords of the manor. The representatives of the late Samuel Brooks esq. the trustees of J. Taylor esq. John Newton esq. of Altrincham, and George Hardy, A. Attenbury, Sydney L. Keymer, of Moatfield House, George and Duncan Stelfox, and Robert Preston Gill esqrs. and Miss Clarke are the chief landowners. The soil is clayey, and the subsoil marl. Market gardening is carried on to a great extent, and very large quantities of strawberries are grown here. The area of the parish is 1,631 acres of land and 7 of water; rateable value, £27,507; the population in 1901 was 3,215 in the civil, and 3,733 in the ecclesiastical parish.
